Souvenirs our hearts collect throughout the years. Contributed by a Bulletin Board Guest Writer

I had a small business in Salem. I asked my cousin's wife, who worked for the IRS, if she would be my bookkeeper. She agreed. So once a month, we sat down with books, a Pillsbury coconut cake, and hot tea and spent a couple of enjoyable hours. Then, of course, we ate the whole cake. She looked to be middle-aged. My mom started having children at 16; this lady appeared to have started in her twenties. My cousins all appeared to match our family in age. My point is she aged but seemed to stop in her fifties.

While visiting, she told me she started her day with a list. Her list appeared to be so long that I couldn't imagine how she would get it all done. She also seemed to make lists of her lists. Only her children knew if she accomplished all of her chores.

When she was in her seventies, this resulted in her looking middle-aged, and everyone expected her to do everything she had done when she was middle-aged.

Obituaries

Warren Anderson 1954-2022

Warren Anderson, age 68, of Grand Ronde, died May 9. In describing Warren's life, his family writes: Warren lived a full life. He did what he wanted to do; laughed inappropriately at every chance; learned what he wanted to know; fixed what he wanted to repair; and loved who he wanted to love.

He was born a hell-raising boy in McMinnville to Harold and Mavis Anderson (McCollum). Warren met Christina Dotter in 1989. They had two children, Warren Christian Anderson and Audrey Rose Larren Anderson.

Warren was fiercely passionate about his children, motorcycles, cars, cracking jokes, and chasing women. He dedicated his life to the pursuit of curating good times for all.

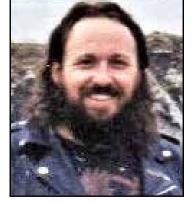

Warren learned early in life the importance of hard work and instilled that same work ethic in his children. As a result, he faced challenges in life with admirable strength and courage.

Warren put family first and was a dedicated father, brother, son, and friend. Warren was strong, quick-witted, loving, and supportive to those who knew him personally.

He could become friends with just about anyone; he was the type of person who would give you the shirt off of his back.

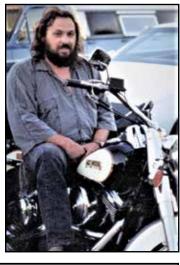

He spewed great advice and fantastic stories for his beloved family and friends when he wasn't cursing.

Warren was a passionate car and motorcycle enthusiast. He spent many years rallying around cars and riding Harley-Davidsons.

Warren's parents and sisters Rosalie and Barbara, preceded him in death. He is survived by his children Warren and Audrey, his sister Sandra Kephart, and his granddaughter Amelia Rose Anderson. A celebration of life will be held from noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, June 5, at the American Legion, Post 75, in Sheridan. All are welcome to join in sharing memories, pictures, music, food, and fellowship in his honor. The Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center handled arrangements. www.dallastribute.com.

Patricia Marie Royal Feb. 16, 1944 - May 18, 2022

Patricia, the mother of five and grandmother of five, passed away on Wednesday, May 18, just seven months after her husband, Paul. They were long-time residents of Sheridan. All five of their children graduated from Sheridan High School in the 1980s.

They met on a blind date in 1963, thanks to their respective friends from the Grand Ronde Tribe. Paul and his friend had graduated from Willamina High School in 1960. Paul's father ran the Agency Store in Grand Ronde. Patricia's friend, who attended St. Mary's Academy with her, was from Grand Ronde and was dating Paul's friend. They double-dated at a bowling alley in Portland. Paul and Patricia married the following year.

Patricia attended Our Lady of Sorrows, St. Mary's Academy, and graduated from Franklin High School in 1962. She took business courses and worked at Bell Telephone and Copeland Lumber, in Portland, before having five children in five years. When the youngest, twins, were in high school, she became a postal clerk and worked in Willamina, Sheridan, and surrounding areas.

Patricia and Paul had been married for 57 years when he passed last October. They often moved at the beginning of their life together in Oregon and Washington.

Patricia enjoyed volunteering at her church, Good Shepherd, in Sheridan. She was often there for spaghetti dinners, pie sales, rummage sales, yard work, and game nights. She loved children, especially babies. Her husband Paul, a quiet and intelligent man, will be remembered for his laughter and hard work caring for their large family.

Paul and Patricia are together again at Evergreen Memorial Park in McMinnville, Oregon. A mass is scheduled for 11 a.m. on Friday, May 27, at Good Shepherd Catholic Church.

Arts and Crafts Guild Open House Set June 1

The Grand Ronde Arts and Crafts Guild will host an open house from 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 1, at the Grand Ronde United Methodist Church, 8735 Grand Ronde Road. The event is free and open to all interested.

The Grand Ronde Arts and Crafts Guild began approximately 30 years ago, with as many as 15 people meeting every Wednesday at the Grand Ronde United Methodist Church. Participants took classes and pursued various mediums of drawing and painting.

As the original members grew older and some passed away, membership dwindled. But recently, with renewed interest, weekly meetings are again being held from 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m. every Wednesday at the church.

Current members hope to find additional interest and participation in the guild from men and women who'd like to join.

The guild recently changed its name to include crafters and membership includes access to the group's library of donated materials.

Membership dues are $5 per month. The guild is a social and active group that enjoys occasional outings related to the arts. For more information, call Alice Flory at 503-879-5927 or 503-437-0798.

A MESSAGE FROM THE WILLAMINA SCHOOL DISTRICT

Graduation 2022

This Saturday, May 28, at 1:00 pm, we celebrate the graduating class of 2022. The ceremony marks the 109th graduation for the Willamina School District, and we have 73 students who will have gained the distinction of earning a high school diploma.

This class has shown amazing perseverance; much of their high school career was spent learning online. Unfortunately, many high school highlights such as dances, sports, and music concerts were canceled due to the pandemic.

Despite the challenges, this group of seniors stayed committed to their studies, and we are proud to announce that eight students finished with a perfect 4.0-grade point average.

Representing the Class of 2022 as Valedictorian will be Ripley Anderson, Grace France, Spyre Nelson, Kena Rankin, Eric Ross, Bahley Scranton, and Esmeralda Tapia-Bravo. Ripley Anderson was singled out for top honors for earning the most college credits during her high school career as well. With nearly perfect GPAs of 3.9+, Michael Fox and Colby Buswell will be our Salutatorians.

We hope to see our families and community members at graduation. You can also participate in congratulating our students while they parade through town in their cars directly after the ceremony.

In other news, we had four athletes compete in the 3A State Track and Field Championship at Hayward Field in Eugene. Competing in the event was Hallee Hughes - Shot Put, Javelin, Discus; Brooklyn Bailey - Long Jump; Nichole Goodwin - Triple Jump; and Jose Cruz - 800 m. The girl's track team earned a 6th place finish, with Hallee Hughes earning all 26 points, taking first place in Javelin and Discus, and third place in the Shot Put.

Just a reminder to parents, our summer school schedule will be available this week. You may register your child for various activities throughout June, July, and August. If you have any questions regarding summer programs, please contact your child's school for assistance.

Wishing you all a memorable Memorial Day!

With great Bulldog pride, Carrie Zimbrick, Superintendent

SHS Students Participate in Future Fair

Sheridan High School students focused on what they could do now to set themselves up for a better future at the Future Fair held on May 19 at the high school.

A hit with many students was BTI's heavy equipment simulators set up in a well-equipped van staffed by Dawson Vanderwiele. Throughout the day, she was on hand to offer pointers and keep the kids moving along. The BTI heavy equipment operator training is developed in partnership with the industry to ensure they are comprehensive, relevant, and respected by employers. BTI students learn to operate heavy equipment through a state-of-the-art learning environment combined with CAT Simulators, hands-on simulated job site training, and using curriculum from Caterpillar and the National Center for Construction Education and Research (NCCER). Sheridan Fire Chief Les Thomas and crew also kept the student's attention by explaining various careers available in firefighting and emergency services.

Other organizations participating included Hampton Lumber, HBF International, Associated Oregon Loggers, George Fox University, Law Enforcement, and Linfield College.

CITY MANAGER'S REPORT FROM THE DESK OF WILLAMINA CITY MANAGER KENNA WEST

"It's time to say goodbye, but I think goodbyes are sad and I'd much rather say hello. Hello to a new adventure." ~ Ernie Harwell

This will be my last column for the City of Willamina. It has been an extraordinary five years, and we have done so much together.... from parks to pipes, streets to swings, and gravestones to grants... it's truly extraordinary what we have accomplished together! City Council has already started preparing for the transition to new management, including:

• Appointment of Library Director Sarah Frost as the Interim City Manager beginning June 10, 2022 (for a maximum of 6 months); and

• Signed a contract and began working with the Mid-Willamette Valley Council of Governments to recruit your next City Manager. In addition, this month, the City Council completed the following at their City Council meeting:

• Held a public hearing and adopted a Supplemental Budget with revisions to multiple Funds due to the receipt of grants and expenditure of necessary funds;

• Adopted a Resolution approving the 2022-2023 rate structure for Recology Western Oregon;

• Approved the agreement for contract law enforcement services between the Yamhill County Sheriff's Office and the City of Willamina; and

• Entered into an Intergovernmental Agreement between the City of Amity and the City of Willamina for shared social archive services.

The Budget Committee (which includes the City Council) also met this month and held a public hearing to review the proposed Fiscal Year 2022-2023 budget. That budget was approved by the Budget Committee and will be considered by the City Council at their next meeting on June 14, 2022.

West Valley Fire District. The Fire District held multiple work sessions this month which included discussions surrounding financial decisions, the future of the organization's structure, and contract services. In addition, they held a regular meeting where they appointed the final members of the budget committee and held a budget committee meeting to review a proposed budget. The Fire Board continues to work together seamlessly to move the District forward in a positive and constructive manner.

As my last thought to the community: I've been blessed to serve for the past five years – to honor your traditions and origins, yet be open to growth and welcome new community members. This wonderful mix of beloved traditions and joyful acceptance of new friends, ideas, and adventures make Willamina such a beautiful and special place. You are the one and only Willamina, and you are like no other! So, I say not goodbye but hello to our next adventures!

Here comes the day that all students look forward to - graduation. The Willamina High School will be sending 73 students off into the future this Saturday, May 28, 2022.

There will be a ceremony at the school on Oaken Hills Drive at 1 p.m. Then, at about 2 p.m., they will do their drive-by parade through town.

How about everyone getting out there and cheering them on? They're heading into the future, and who knows what that will bring.

Supporting the graduates of Willamina and all high schools is "What's Up in Willamina."

OHA and ODE Release Fentanyl Response Kit

Oregon Health Authority (OHA) and the Oregon Department of Education (ODE) are releasing a Fentanyl and Opioid Response Toolkit for Schools to support educators, administrators, school nurses, students and families.

The toolkit is in response to a public health crisis related to rising youth and adult opioid overdoses and deaths in Oregon.

This toolkit provides information about how schools can create an emergency protocol to administer naloxone, also known as Narcan. The toolkit includes information on how to access, administer and store this life-saving opioid overdose prevention medication. In addition, the toolkit has resources to support staff training, prevention, education, and other resources essential to developing and implementing school emergency response procedures.

They Learned, They Laughed, They "Stopped the Bleed"

Sara and Staci react to the sensation of sticking their fingers into the fake, cold, squishy wound hole in the tin can in front of Sara.

John Stanislaw demonstrates applying pressure to an artery with Staci paying close attention.

It's true. Learning can be fun.

Air Safety Northwest owners John and Jennifer Stanislaw not only taught and certified all participants to "Stop the Bleed" at last Friday's Sheridan Chamber breakfast, they served homemade biscuits and gravy, with fruit and hot coffee, and awarded great prizes for the Chamber's trivia winner and business card drawing.

The West Valley should feel good knowing that 22 more residents have the know-how to keep them from bleeding to death in an emergency situation. Yes, there was laughter, but there was considerable learning taking place at the same time.

In addition to this class, John and Jennifer offer CPR and AED for adults; CPR and AED for infants and children; first aid; and hands-on fire extinguisher training. To schedule a class or for more information, visit their website www. airsafetvnw.com.

The "Stop the Bleed" course normally takes about an hour and is based on the American College of Surgeons curriculum. The Chamber group learned how to control life threatening bleeding with tourniquets and wound packing.

The Chamber will sponsor the next breakfast meeting set for 8 a.m. on Friday, June 3, at the Monroe Event Center. The Chamber board will lead a discussion regarding how the Chamber can best benefit its members. These meetings are open to all businesses, organizations, and individuals interested in working together to improve the community.

Ila makes a valiant effort to "save Kim" by applying a tourniquet as Marianne watches and learns.

It looks like Marilyn Levy, Donna Hewlett and Charlyn Pranger were able to tighten up Matt Huegli's tourniquet sufficiently following John's sound advice.

"If she's still smiling, does that mean Marianne's tourniquet isn't tight enough?" debated Sarah (middle) with help from Ila and Kim.

Should You Insulate the New Shed with Cookbooks?

By Brad Pederson

You're grazing through a Habitat for Humanity Resale store on another lunch date with that gal you're going to marry in a few years. She randomly picks up a cookbook titled something along the lines of Micro Waving Fruit, "This sounds delicious!" she exclaims, presenting the item as if she was once a model for the Price Is Right. The cover elegantly displays sliced strawberries and kiwi, laid out in decorative circular rows upon a microwave safe platter. She then continues, "The Hot Pocket crusties glued to the microwave roof are adding flavor enhancers to this fresh dish."

You reply in the same manner, "The bag of popcorn my oldest set to 23 minutes instead of 2:30 adds a smoky rustic cabin feel to any upside down pineapple cake." Laughing she sets it down not knowing that this passing over of said book would haunt the both of you for years to come.

For over the course of a decade you will wake from countless nightmares based around not knowing these recipes. You wake and Google the title in different ways, never coming up with images close to that front cover the two of you held so dear in your jokes. The image falters from your thoughts until it has faded.

One day your mother calls declaring that grandma has 300 pounds of cook books that are in need of a good home. You pivot to your now wife while holding the phone, "It's a lot of cook books."

She responds, "We can go through them and donate what we don't need." Then an epiphany rises in the both of you, as you lock eyes, a surge of collective energy that maybe, just maybe, grandma could be holding the key this whole time. Seven car transfers later you are basking in a wealth of knowledge... Sunset's Annual recipes from 1988 to '93, Time Life's Foods of the World's spiral bindings from 1968 to '71, McCall's 1965... None of these are the exact piece you have been seeking and the Sunset's Microwave Cook Book is not the same as "Micro Waving Fruit." Uncertain what to do with these treasures, you recall back to your days as a 19-year-old apprentice helping your grandfather, from the other side of the family, drywall finish a house remodel. "This toy, your cousin left in the yard after he swears he picked everything up." He places it in the hollow wall cavity, "I asked him if he had picked up the yard properly and he told me he had." After adding a fresh unscathed newspaper next to the GI Joe, he then turns to you, "This is this morning's paper. I always add one when completing a job because I enjoy finding articles and ads from decades back when I'm opening walls." You both then set the dry wall sheet, encasing a tomb for future people to bask in.

You're not actually going to insulate a building with your Grandmother's fond choices in cuisines. That would be too expensive to ensure none would fall ill to Oregon's black mold problem, but what should you do? After cherry picking this collection it still stands awesome, linier, and congruent with those dog eared pages, footnotes and excellent side notations, all added by Grandma.

No one wants to discard the past, especially if it brings on moments of splendid memories. Could there be a recipe overlooked and later you find yourself remodeling the house looking for it? If you donated these epilogues to the masses would you go out later asking for that one flavor profile you overlooked when donating? Your family has no room for all these cookbooks so maybe you put an ad in the local paper, letting folks know you have a stack for a good home. Like your now wife said, "This article might shed some light on what to do."

FCS First Graders Learn Differences Between Then and Now at Museum

Faulconer Chapman first-grade students are studying the differences between "then" and "now." It would be hard to top the Sheridan Museum of History to help kids learn about "then." Museum volunteers, dressed in clothing of days gone by, helped the kids don old-time bonnets, aprons, hats, and vests, before making the rounds to stations set up for a hands-on learning experience.

Lower right, Chuck Rogers and FCS teacher Mrs. Bushbaum demonstrated how farmers would plow and seed by hand. Kids visiting this station learned more about old-time farming, logging, and the military.

The museum has a small room set up to illustrate a classroom of the 1800s. The young man shown right seems to be quite engrossed in what the "schoolmarm" had to say. Among other topics, she held up a miniature outhouse replica and explained the "one holer" and the larger "two holer."

In the lower right photo, kids had a great time playing with wooden button toys they made themselves with guidance from Donna Firestone.

The Sheridan museum will be open from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. on Hometown Days, June 18, to welcome everyone who would like to stop by to learn more about "then."

Donna Hewlett's bed turning will begin at 11 a.m. on Hometown Days at the museum. A bed turning is a unique way of telling the stories and history behind individual quilts. Quilts stacked on a bed are held up and turned back one at a time as Donna explains the history of each one.

Sheridan Sun Editor

It interests me to watch the steelworkers on the new bridge. I like to study their methods of going about it to set up a big bridge, and it is with no small amount of admiration for their work. They hop around over those steel beams and girders as unconcernedly as sparrows. I could not even get around in the places they go on all fours and hanging on with both hands. But then if they would set about it to get out a paper they would perhaps make as big of monkeys of themselves as I would if I attempted to set up a steel bridge. It is a matter of "you in your corner and I in mine" and we all have to let our light shine in our corner the best we can.

The merchants of Sheridan are the most accommodating set of businessmen I have ever seen about getting their copy ads in the office in good season. We get some of our copy as early as Monday and none of it later than Wednesday morning. This lightens up the work for the help in the office wonderfully. In most towns there are always five or six who will stand the editor off, and stand him off until Thursday noon and then come dragging their copy in all at the same time. In fact, in most offices, the help has to do their week's work from Wednesday noon until Thursday night. This necessitates them working until the wee small hours of the morning in order to get their work done in the time for Friday morning's mail. We have very little night work to do in Sheridan in the newspaper office. This is because the businessmen are so thoughtful about not holding us up waiting for advertising copy. As a rule, the paper is out by the middle of the afternoon Thursday. We appreciate this cooperation on the part of the Sheridan merchants. They are the finest fellows I have ever worked with in this respect. I do not think it is out of place to recognize these courtesies through this column.

Sheridan Club Goes On Garden Ramble

Monday morning the Sheridan Garden Club started on a garden ramble. They went to Dayton where they met the Dayton Garden Club and the two groups had a potluck dinner next to the old block house in Dayton park. After dinner each club held a business meeting. Then they went to Salem where they were met by Salem Garden Club and were taken on a tour of some of Salem's most choice gardens, which were outstanding in their beauty. The gardens visited were those of Dr. Clements, Dr. Gatke, Elizabeth Lord, George Putman, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Chester Cox and the grounds on the late Governor Paterson place which belongs now to Mrs. Shucking. Those attending from Sheridan were Mrs. O.K. Äldrich, Mrs. R.L. Eskeridge, Mrs. Edna Lamson, Mrs. G.W. Epley, Mrs. W.H. Hibbert, Mrs. A.F. Wohlgemuth, Mrs. Roscoe Field, Mrs. Lyle Jones, Mrs, O.H. Houser, Mrs, Homer Frick, Mrs. Lee Ladd, Mrs. Roy Malo, Mrs. Ray Goldsmoth, Mrs. Edythe Thomson, Mrs. Tom Parsons, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. Carl Gregg, Mrs. Dell Lamson, Mrs. Howard Davison and Mrs. Charles Thurston.

P.T.O. Meeting To Be In Charge of School Board

The Parent Teachers Organization will have their next meeting Monday night, May 15, at the high school. The program is in charge of the school board members with Mrs. Roy Malo as chairman. Numbers on the program will be from the high school glee clubs, members of Mrs. Fry's forensic class, harmonica duet from the grade school, and a number from the seventh grade. The main speech will be given by Dr. Baine from the Department of Education of Oregon.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting with Mrs. W.H. Brandt Jr., and Miss Gretchen Streichert in charge. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Fell From Bridge

The first real accident occurred Monday in the construction of the new bridge, when William Werick fell from the bridge, breaking three vertebrae. He was taken at once by ambulance to the McMinnville hospital, where his condition is reported as only fair.

City Gets $42,000 Offer from Gov't To be Used in Improving Streets

According to a telegram received by Mayor E. J. Bayliss, the government has allocated $42,000 to the town of Sheridan for the improvement of sidewalks, streets and curbs. The allocation is from the WPA funds and this amount is supposed to be spent for labor.

This gift leaves the city council in somewhat of a dilemma, they want to accept this generous gift, but where to get the money for the work? The mayor and the council are studying means whereby they can see their way clear to accept this government gift.

This is a question which should interest everyone and progressive citizens should get behind this opportunity to improve the streets and sidewalks of the town.

Unless we can provide the material for this improvement the allotment will be withdrawn by the government and given to some other town. Forty-two thousand dollars to drop into the pockets of our local workman is something that should not lightly be refused. Not only this but we would have permanent improvements which would be a matter of pride to all residents of the town for years and years to come if we can arrange some way to meet the requirements of the WPA authorities.

Supreme Court Rules In Favor of Willamina

Salem, Ore. Special - The way was cleared for construction of a new high school building at Willamina Tuesday when the state supreme court handed down an opinion holding the proceedings leading up to the organization of the district were regular and legal.

Validity of the district which comprises a number of districts in Yamhill, Polk and Tillamook counties, all contiguous to the city of Willamina was challenged by E.C. Brown, Frank Hulse, David Turnridge and a number of other tax payers of the district.

Suit was brought in the circuit court for Yamhill County where Circuit Judge Earl C. Latourette upheld the validity of the district. The supreme court in an opinion by Justice Kelly affirmed the decree of Judge Latourette.
