Heavy Police Presence for Shooting on W. Main Street in Sheridan Oct. 18

About 9:15 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 18, Yamhill County Sheriff's Office was notified by our dispatch center of a shooting that had just occurred in the city of Sheridan. All available Yamhill County Sheriff's Office personnel responded, including deputies who had been at the high school in Willamina. An adult male was located on W. Main Street near Richard Street suffering from a gunshot wound. He received medical aid by responding deputies followed up by Sheridan Fire District. During the

The victim, also an adult male, was transported to the hospital for treatment of injuries from the shooting.

Yamhill County Sheriff's Office Special Investigations Unit detectives responded and processed the expansive scene. Both the individuals involved are currently houseless, and residing in a makeshift camp along the Yamhill River. A handgun was recovered as well as additional evidence related to this case.

Chad Lee Whiffen was lodged in the Yamhill County Correctional Facility on the following charges:

- Assault 1st Degree
  - Unlawful Use of a Weapon

A Message from the Sheridan Superintendent

Dear Sheridan Families,

Last year the District partnered with the City of Sheridan on the Safe Routes to School grant program through the Oregon Department of Transportation. The grant allowed us to review the many ways our students go to and from school. The final report included several recommendations for the District, mostly for Faulconer-Chapman (FCS).

The primary concern at FCS is arrival and dismissal times. There are students walking or "rolling", parents/caregivers dropping off or picking up, and buses. Given that there are approximately 480 students at FCS, the entire front of the building is very congested. There are two areas of great concern. The first is the five-way intersection. Students are crossing to walk/roll, cars are exiting from the drop-off/pick-up area, and buses are exiting. All of this converges in one intersection.

The second area is the parking strip in front of the old gym building and field. The strip is designed with parallel parking on both sides. Parents/caregivers park on both sides, exiting down the middle. This situation is dangerous because students (sometimes with parents/caregivers) are crossing to get to their car.

Our team is reviewing the recommendations from the grant and exploring different options. Lately we have considered having our buses go to the back of the school for pick up. We also talked about how we can reduce the number of cars in the parking strip. The District is in a position where we need to try to reduce the congestion, even though we will most likely need to make adjustments as we try new ideas.

In the coming weeks we will be communicating with our bus transportation company, parents, and staff, as we try to improve arrival and dismissal congestion. Our students need a safe way to arrive and leave FCS.

Please contact the district office if you would like to help us find a solution for the FCS drop-off and dismissal times.

Rand L. Rydell

Rand was an Oregonian his whole life except for other than during his time serving in the Army during the Vietnam War. He grew up in Grand Ronde with his parents, Herbert and Berniece Rydell, older brother Ronald, his sisters Amelie and Joyce, and twin brother Leonard.

He attended elementary and high school in Willamina, was Valedictorian of his senior class, and received his bachelor's degree in Geology from Oregon State.

His father served as Scoutmaster of Troop 254 of the Boy Scouts of America, and Rand and his brother went on numerous Scout camping trips, including attending the 1960 Boy Scout Jamboree in Colorado Springs.

Rand was a true woodsman. He lived partially off-grid in the family's home built by his father, surrounded by towering fir trees. He knew how to make turpentine from his trees for use with his woodworking, and he was highly skilled with wood creations.

On his walks, he tied young alder trees into simple knots and harvested the knotted walking sticks when they grew large enough. He hunted elk and deer on his land and walked every trail. He even had a favorite hunting spot and always seemed to have some game jerky on hand.

Rand also enjoyed deep-sea fishing with his friends.

Rand was married for a while, but he lived alone for much of his life. He seemed to enjoy his solitude and his wood crafts. However, he eventually met Judy, who became his life partner for many years until she passed from cancer in 2010.

Rand was a character with a sharp wit and a relatively dry sense of humor, which added color to our lives. He wore his trademark shorts and hat outfit pretty much all year. He was his own man regardless of time and season.

His memorial service will be at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 29, 2023, at the white Methodist Church, 8703 Grand Ronde Road in Grand Ronde. The church is across from the Chachalu Museum and Cultural Center.

We will begin with a VFW Color Guard at 2 p.m. and afterward gather in the chapel to share our memories. The event will be relatively informal. Per his wishes, his ashes will be placed on his land.

Michael Lee Morgan

Michael Lee Morgan was born July 2, 1961, to Raymond and Vivian Morgan in Canyonville, Ore.

Mike served in the Army for eight years. He also enjoyed nature, animals, and children. You could find him fishing, camping, singing, and playing guitar around the campfire. He also liked riding his motorcycle.

Mike was preceded in death by his father, Raymond Morgan, mother, Vivian Morgan, and sisters, Ronda McKnight, Penny Morgan, and Tina Morgan.

He is survived by his sisters, Glenda Ice, Vickie Brooks, and Cindy Morgan, and many nieces and nephews.

Donations can be made at the Sheridan US Bank to the business memorial account for Mike Morgan.

Updates from previous communications about projects and continuous improvement goals as we continue to build a strong core for our small and mighty team to better serve our community.

Without a strong team core, the foundation of the team can feel like a game of Jenga; just one small change and the entire structure can crumble. City Staff is all working together to make sure that our structure remains strong which is needed to bring visions to reality. Internally, our teams have been cross training amongst positions, changing the culture from a traditionally siloed environment to one of a more cohesive and supportive team environment. This type of culture allow us to build a strong foundation for the community from the inside out. As shared last month, one of the many goals that the staff and City Council is working on to better serve the City of Willamina, is networking with as many individuals as possible in order to continuously improve ourselves and our community. Networking with local cities and with individuals across the state is where the continuous improvement mission begins; we are looking forward to business growth, building strong relationships, and gaining trust within our community ensuring that we are reaching out to all areas.

Recently, City Staff has attended trainings to learn about improving the following areas –

- Finance Networking and continued education with Oregon Municipal Finance Officers Association
- Human Resource Development and records management with the Oregon Association of Municipal Recordors
- Mainstreet America – networking with national teams to gather information about growing our business district
- League of Oregon Cities – learning about new laws and regulations governing local Municipalities State Wide
- Public Works Training – working with our contract engineers on the lead pipe program, backflow device certifications, mercury training, water and sewer classes for certification
- Court processes and procedures – continued education with the Oregon Association of Administration

Cook Some Fun With Spooky Spider Hot Dogs

These Halloween hot dogs use crescent rolls to make a spooky twist on pigs in a blanket. Kids love them. Plus, they are an easy snack for a holiday party.

Ingredients

- 1 (8 ounce) can refrigerated crescent rolls
- 8 hot dogs
- 2 tablespoons ketchup, or to taste

1. Preheat the oven to 375 degrees F (190 degrees C).
2. Unroll crescent dough. Pinch or press the perforation between the triangles to get four rectangular pieces. Cut rectangles in half lengthwise, making eight narrow strips.
3. Make a 2-inch slice through the center of one end of a hot dog. Cut two more 2-inch slices on either side of that slice, so the "legs" are about the same thickness. Repeat on other end. Cut "legs" into remaining hot dogs.
4. Roll a crescent strip around center of each dog. Place spider dogs on an ungreased baking sheet.
5. Bake in the preheated oven until golden brown, about 11 minutes. Dip a chopstick into some ketchup and dot "eyes" onto each spider. Serve with remaining ketchup.

WHAT'S UP IN WILLAMINA

by mary jane

It seems like it's time for yard, rummage, and bake sales. At least that's what all the fliers I see tacked up all over the place say. Some of them are weeks old. That's just not right.

Yes, put up your fliers, then take them down when your event ends. I know I don't like reading about something that's already happened, and I missed it. There's a lot going on now that Halloween's coming around the corner. Then Thanksgiving is right on its heels, not to mention Christmas! It'll all be here before we know it, and then it'll be gone almost as fast.

By the time you read all the fliers at the grocery store, your frozen foods have thawed, and you have a real mess, not to mention missing the sale because someone left their flier up.

Do your local store and all the local folks a favor and take down those fliers once your event has passed. Watching the timetables for events is "What's Up in Willamina."

The tradition of carving Jack-o'-Lanterns originated in Ireland using turnips instead of pumpkins. It is allegedly based on a legend about a man named Stingy Jack who repeatedly trapped the Devil and only let him go on the condition that Jack would never go to Hell. But when Jack died, he learned that Heaven did not want his soul either, so he was forced to wander the Earth as a ghost for eternity. The Devil gave Jack a burning lump of coal in a carved-out turnip to light his way. Locals eventually began carving scary faces into their own turnips to frighten away evil spirits.

You're Not Alone Event to Bring Awareness to Parkinson's

You're Not Alone. A message that is intended to be spread far and wide by musician Allen Ingram from 4-9 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 4, at the new Swan Hall, located at Odd Fellows Pizza in Willamina.

You're Not Alone is a family-friendly, donation based fundraising event which will feature a variety of live music from musicians across Oregon.

One can expect music styles of the Beatles to Bossa Nova, classic rock to country, funk and old time fiddle.

Monies raised go directly to Parkinson's Resources of Oregon (PRO), a non-profit organization serving Southern Washington and Oregon. PRO assists people with Parkinson's, their families and caregivers regardless of their ability to pay, so no one faces this alone. A PRO representative will be at the event to speak of the services and programs, as well as answer questions.

Allen, a Willamina resident and transplant from Eastern Oregon, was diagnosed with Parkinson's in 2018. By the time his diagnosis was made, he had been unknowingly living with symptoms for four to five years.

"So many people don't realize the different symptoms of Parkinson's, like when I was diagnosed in 2018, the doctor said I had probably had four or five years already. Some of the symptoms I had I didn't relate them to Parkinson's at all. It didn't even cross my mind.

"Nobody's journey is the same," said Allen when asked what got him to start this event.

Parkinson's symptoms include tremors, bradykinesia (slowed movement), rigid muscles, impaired posture and balance, freeze of gate, loss of automatic movements and speech and writing changes, among others.

Allen's goal is to bring attention to not just Parkinson's disease, but the simple fact, we don't always know what is going on with other people.

Allen said, "What really prompted this, is the thought, say, you're walking out of a big store, and there are 15 people trying to get out, and in front is a guy with a cane, and people are becoming impatient with him. Maybe he has Parkinson's. They don't know that, they just think he's slow and want to get out from behind him. Humanity isn't cruel. Sometimes they just don't know."

Allen hopes to educate all that are willing to learn. What to look for and how to help.

Parkinson's awareness is a personal mission of his. However, he doesn't want to stop there.

"I want people to be aware there are a lot of different things that affect people neurologically. There are mental health issues, PTSD, Alzheimer's, there's many different diseases and afflictions out there." Allen said.

Parkinson's Resources of Oregon is located in Beaverton, Ore. They offer counseling services, support groups, education, and exercise and wellness classes. They also offer assistance to those in need for such things as walkers, and wheel chairs.

"Since I've found PRO, I have found support groups, and all kinds of information for when things are very bad and you need more physical help.

"Now, nine out of ten times when I play, the stage is about six-inches taller than the floor, I need help, my brain thinks I can't do that without help. Most of the people I will play with are great, my wife is great, Coley is great, there are several on the list that just step right in and help. That's where humanity is good. People are good," said Allen.

At about ten years old, a friend of his sister came over with a guitar and played around a bit which peaked his interest. At age 11 his parents bought him his first guitar.

Classic rock is a lot of what Allen plays, along with some country and folk rock. His favorite however is classic, where he admires the music of Neil Young, and Bob Dylan. Jon Fogerty takes first when asked if he could only choose one for the rest of his time.

Allen has been married to Carole for 38 year this December, and has been retired since 2019.

Disease Through Music Education

Now Allen is filling his time finding ways to educate others, including with this upcoming event.

"You're not alone, it isn't a slogan, it's how I feel. I say that because of places like PRO. You have support groups, you have to make the first move sometimes, but you're not alone in this." Allen declared.

Artists will be coming from Independence, Dallas, McMinnville, and other areas of Oregon for the event. The common goal is to bring awareness of not only Parkinson's disease but any afflictions which can change a person's life. "I want people to know about PRO. I share my journey; I share my story with those that come see me play at the Wildwood in Willamina on Sunday night.

"On a final note, I want to make sure to thank my wife Carole and Coley Smith, who is like a sister to me, they have been instrumental in putting this event together." concluded Allen.

For more information about Parkinson's disease and PRO go to parkinsonsresources.org.

Thursday Night Lights for Sheridan Youth Football

Sheridan Youth Football, ran under the non profit A.G.I.L.E. held its annual under the lights game this past Thursday, Oct. 19, at the home field of the Sheridan Spartans.

Youth leagues third-fourth grade and fifth-sixth each played against Dayton with a stadium full cheering them on. The night games give the young boys a taste of high-school football, playing under the stadium lights with extra fans.

This year A.G.I.L.E. raised funds to purchase pink jerseys for the players for the month of October. Sheridan's third-fourth grade team took the win against Dayton 13-12, stopping a last second conversion which would have tied the game.

Sheridan's fifth-sixth put up a great fight during the game, but came up short against Dayton's offense, losing 0-14.

The Sheridan teams will play one more under the lights game this season.

Third-Fourth will start at 6 p.m., at the Sheridan High School stadium with fifth and sixth to follow.

Sheridan will once again be sporting the pink jerseys playing against Willamina. All are invited to come out to cheer on the youth of the West Valley.

Neal Heyano, owner of Moose Photography, volunteers his time and skills to capture action shots throughout season. Neal generously offered us use of these photos.

The History and Origins of Halloween

Halloween's origins date back to the ancient Celtic festival of Samhain (pronounced sow-in). The Celts, who lived 2,000 years ago, mostly in the area that is now Ireland, the United Kingdom and northern France, celebrated their new year on November 1. This day marked the end of summer and the harvest and the beginning of the dark, cold winter, a time of year that was often associated with human death. Celts believed that on the night before the new year, the boundary between the worlds of the living and the dead became blurred. On the night of October 31 they celebrated Samhain, when it was believed that the ghosts of the dead returned to earth. In addition to causing trouble and damaging crops, Celts thought that the presence of the otherworldly spirits made it easier for the Druids, or Celtic priests, to make predictions about the future. For a people entirely dependent on the volatile natural world, these prophecies were an important source of comfort during the long, dark winter. To commemorate the event, Druids built huge sacred bonfires, where the people gathered to burn crops and animals as sacrifices to the Celtic deities. During the celebration, the Celts wore costumes, typically consisting of animal heads and skins, and attempted to tell each other's fortunes.

When the celebration was over, they re-lit their hearth fires, which they had extinguished earlier that evening, from the sacred bonfire to help protect them during the coming winter. By A.D. 43, the Roman Empire had conquered the majority of Celtic territory. In the course of the 400 years that they ruled the Celtic lands, two festivals of Roman origin were combined with the traditional Celtic celebration of Samhain.

The first was Feralia, a day in late October when the Romans traditionally commemorated the passing of the dead. The second was a day to honor Pomona, the Roman goddess of fruit and trees. The symbol of Pomona is the apple, and the incorporation of this celebration into Samhain probably explains the tradition of bobbing for apples that is practiced today on Halloween.

Why Do We Trick-or-Treat?

There is much debate around the origins of trick-or-treating, but generally there are three theories. The first theory suggests that during Samhain, Celtic people would leave food out to appease the spirits traveling the Earth at night. Over time, people began to dress as these unearthly beings in exchange for similar offerings of food and drink. The second theory speculates that the candy boon stems from the Scottish practice of guising, which is a secular version of "souling." During the Middle Ages, generally the children and poor adults would collect food and money from local homes in return for prayers for the dead on All Souls' Day. Guisers dropped the prayers in favor of non-religious practices with the inclusion of songs, jokes, and other "tricks." A third theory argues that modern American trick-or-treating stems from "belsnickeling," a German-American Christmas tradition where children would dress in costume and then call on their neighbors to see if the adults could guess the identities of the disguised. In one version of the practice, the children were rewarded with food or other treats if no one could identify them.

Jaycee Halloween Costume Winners

More than 150 kids turned out for the Jaycee's Halloween party Wednesday night. As the judges Mrs. Karl Hummel, Mrs. K.E. Shetterly and Mrs. Dudley Spoffard can testify, each costume was worthy of a prize. Here, then are the final choices for the winners: Front row: pre-primary; Chantel Wright, Scotty Homer, and Doug Eddy; second row: first grade; Jerry Greenlaw, David Lux, and John Flansberg; second grade, Kyle Blackwell, Joslyn Buswell, and David Wagler; third grade, Lonnie McKnight and Virginia Berg. Back row: fourth grade, Brad Bryant, David Eoff and Scott Ackerman; fifth grade, Ellen Tucker, Donna Hamilton and Carolyn Blakely; sixth grade, Myra Robinson, Dennis Zimbrick and Martha DeForest; and Scott Greb, third grade winner, too tall for the second row. The party was judged to be a huge success.

School News

All twenty-eight students in Mrs. Herzberg's sixth grade class wrote stories and drew pictures for Halloween. The stories and pictures were presented before the class and some of the parents on Friday, October 26.

Two outstanding stories were written by Diane Hamilton and Jack Scott.

Part of the class helped serve refreshments of punch, coffee, doughnuts, and cookies. The party was held in honor of American Education Week. The class and fifteen parents attended. The class also had a Halloween party on Wednesday October 31.

The Haunted House by Diane Hamilton.

One Halloween I got dared to go stay in the old house on the corner. Now, everybody knows what a big chicken I am! But I said that I would, 'cause there were a lot of kids around and I didn't want them to think that I was as chicken as they thought I was. Halloween finally came. The hours went faster and faster. I went upstairs to get my things. I went downstairs. It was time to go. I went and got my coat and then I left. As I walked down the dark street I started to think about the house. My legs started to shake and my teeth rattle. I reached the house and looked up at it. I froze right in my footsteps. Boy, did that house look scary. I walked up the steps to the door. I walked in and I left the door open. So in case I got scared I wouldn't break my neck getting out. Just as I got in the house behind me the door slammed! "Aggh!" I yelled.

I went into the front room and got ready for the night. I had just got in my sleeping bag when I heard a noise. And I stuck my head under the covers. The noise sounded like somebody, or something, was walking down the stairs. I decided that I would go and see what it was, or it would be worrying me all night. I got out of my sleeping bag real quietly and grabbed my flashlight. And I started upstairs. I didn't see anything. The noise kept coming louder than ever. I got up to the top of the stairs.

There was a little room that was all dark. I couldn't see anything, so I turned on my flashlight and by then the noise had stopped. All of the sudden I heard this real haunting like music. I looked in the corner and there was a skeleton playing an organ. I got down from there. I ran down the stairs into the front room, grabbed my sleeping bag and ran out of the house. As I was running down the steps, I tripped over my sleeping bag and went head over heels down the steps. As I was lying at the bottom of the steps, I heard someone laughing. I turned around. And I saw the kids that dared me to stay in the house. They were the noises I heard. And the skeleton I saw was one of them in the Halloween suit. I felt so dumb I had to laugh, too! Always believe what you see and hear and don't take people up on dares!
