Have you ever gone to a "Wet Season" at the West Valley Community Campus? If not, treat yourself and do so. It's the third Saturday of every month from November through March. It's food and music.

You pay for the food, which is yummy, warm, and reasonably priced. The music is free....yes, FREE and fun.

All ages seem to really enjoy it. I do mean "all ages," from pre-schoolers running around to their heart's content to the older folks tapping their feet discreetly under the table. (I guess they don't want other folks to know how much they like to 'groove" to the beat).

It's a great change for the wet months of Willamina. You see folks you haven't seen since last year and have a great chance to catch up." The food is yummy and plentiful and done by a local charitable group.

Enjoying getting out on a cold and probably wet evening is "What's Up in Willamina."

A Message from the Sheridan Superintendent

Dear Sheridan Community,

A major part of managing the District is the care and upkeep of our facilities, with safety systems in place. The systems we use for student and staff safety include fire alarms, intercoms, door entry and locks, radios, security cameras, and outdoor lighting, just to name a few. Our schools need to be maintained so that we don't end up with costly repairs or having to close a portion of a school because it is not safe for students and staff.

A few weeks ago the School Board met to discuss our facilities, specifically the expensive projects that would require additional funding in the way of a bond. The list for SHS included:

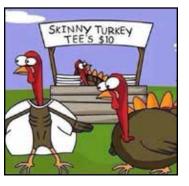

- Replace flooring
- Address multiple roof leaks with a new roof
- New intercom system, fire alarm system, update lock/en try access, additional cameras
- Improve exterior lighting, including the parking lot
- Update science room to include lab space The list for FCS included:
- Old gym building renovation, including the choir and band rooms, locker rooms and storage room
- Old gym building updated fire alarm system
- Additional security cameras

It is important to me that the district is transparent about the condition of our facilities, and that we act responsibly to care for and maintain them so that we avoid major renovation. The SHS roof repairs and the condition of the FCS Old Gym building are very concerning. If we do not make a plan to take care of these items, they will become very expensive in the future.

The Board is considering when to go to the voters for a bond. Currently, the District is able to receive a match capital improvement grant from the state. If the voters approve a $6 million bond, the District will receive $6 million from the state.

In the coming weeks and months, more information will be coming out regarding our facilities and the cost for improvements. I encourage you to attend community meetings and school board work sessions to learn more about our facilities.

Obituaries

Clyde Dennis "Bub" Dawkins April 02, 1956 – Nov. 17, 2023 Clyde Dawkins passed away peacefully in his sleep at home on Nov. 17, 2023 at 67.

He was born in Portland, Ore., to Clyde Charles Dawkins and Muriel Delores Markel Dawkins. He was raised and attended school in various locations in Oregon and Washington. His last place of schooling was in Grand Ronde.

Clyde enjoyed time with his family and friends while spending a lot of time 4-wheeling at Browns Camp, and out on the boat at Fall Creek Reservoir tubing and knee boarding, until mud racing became his passion.

He loved building and helping others build their race trucks. The only way to get him to travel was going to a race.

Clyde was very kind-hearted, more than generous, caring, selfless, intelligent, humble and touched many people's lives, not only in his own community, but in the racing communities that he participated in.

Clyde served the community for more than 25 years with his business, Clyde Dawkins Auto Recycling, picking ups junk cars, recycling, and doing property clean ups.

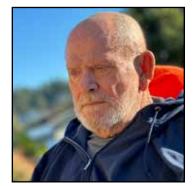

At a very young age he and his dad built a cedar shake mills. He worked for several years at Champion Building Products and several years at Liberty Homes in the frame shop. He had various other short-term jobs. He was the happiest running Clyde Dawkins Auto Recycling and Total Destruction Racing Team.

He loved to make sure all kids had Christmas gift which started "Fill the Mud Truck". He was a long-time member of Willamina 4th of July Committee.

He was preceded in death by both of his parents and sister Cindy Lou. He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Sherry Dawkins, his children Dennis Ray (Jessica) Dawkins of Tillamook, Wendy Lynn (Jeff) Lockwood of McMinnville, his grandchildren Jazmin, Hayden and Hadley Dawkins, his siblings Patricia McMillan, Claudia Beth Forlines, Charles Dawkins, Douglas Dawkins, and Muriel Bunn, and many nieces and nephews. He had many friends he considered family and was loved by all who knew him. Clyde's celebration of life will be at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 25, 2023, at the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Gymnasium at 9615 Grand Ronde Rd Building I, in Grand Ronde, back by the educational department. Light finger foods will be provided following a small service.

Friends are invited to come and celebrate Clyde while sharing stories and memories with the family.

Ronald Dennis "Denny" Houston Nov. 14, 2023

Ronald Dennis "Denny" Houston passed in peace Nov. 14, 2023, age 80.

Born in Lebanon, Ore., to Robert and Dorothy (Murray) Houston. Denny graduated from Willamina High School in 1962. He held one of the longest track and field records for shotput.

He worked at Hampton Lumber mills for 32 years, retiring in 2003.

Denny was a pillar in the community, serving on the Booster Club and volunteering as a softball coach for his daughters before moving on to becoming the Districts umpire.

Denny is survived by his five daughters, Shelly, Leslie, Candie, Robyn and Jenni; his grandchildren, Stefon, Jasmine, Tayler, McKenzie, Cade and Issac; great-grandchildren, Cassidy, Leah, and Hailey; two brothers, Dick (Anita), and Bud (Char). He was a kind, strong and loving man who will be truly missed. Instead of flowers donations can be made to the Sheridan Boosters Club.

Iris Lucille Hamilton 1946-2023

Iris Lucille Hamilton, of Beaverton, Ore, peacefully passed away at home on Oct. 3, 2023, from a short but mighty battle with brain cancer. Iris was surrounded and visited by many loved ones, friends, and family the week of her passing.

Iris was born in McMinnville, to Matilda M. Hamilton (Mishler) and Walter J. Hamilton. She was the seventh of eight children raised in Yamhill County.

Iris ventured out to California and married Robert J. Salazar Sr., where they had two children, Robert J. Salazar Jr. and Nancy A. Salazar. After residing in California for 25 years, Iris moved back to Oregon to be with her daughter Nancy for the arrival of her first granddaughter, Tori M. Hagge.

Iris was loved by many, but by her grandchildren most of all. Tori M. Hagge (Swayzee), Hayden P. Hagge, and Adrianna N. Salazar. She has one great-grandchild, Neil A. Swayzee, and expects her second grandchild in February 2024.

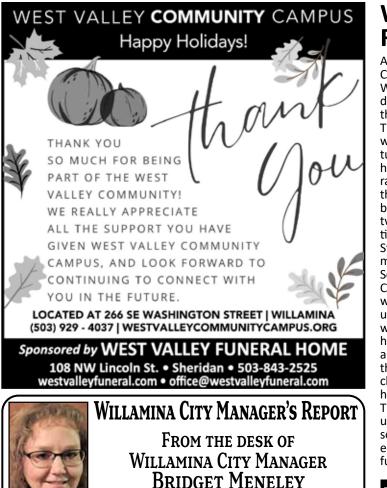

"I'm not arguing, I'm just explaining why I'm right," was one of her favorite quotes, and it was comedic to her family and friends as it described her personality well.

She was a very passionate woman for the ones she loved and her love for Jesus. Her family is at peace that she has changed her address and now resides in heaven with the Lord.

Iris will be laid to rest in Sheridan, with her mother, father, and brother, along with the Hamilton and Mishler family members at the Mennonite Cemetery.

The West Valley Bulletin Board office will be closed Thusday November 23 and Friday November 24 in observance of Thanksgiving.

We are excited that individuals want to set up shop in Willamina and provide more options for our citizens! Our philosophy is to ensure safety while looking for ways to make these types of projects a success.

Business Licenses

All businesses in Willamina, including landlords, require a business license. An annual business license costs $100 to setup, and then $75 per year thereafter. In most cases this is all you need to setup with the City. However, additional processes and fees may be required if you need an OLCC, building permit, or need to satisfy other code requirements for your business. These code requirements may be at the City, County or State level.

Why support local business?

If you're not a business owner, you may support our small businesses by shopping there if you're able. This is crucial to a local healthy economy. Small businesses also create jobs and contribute to overall community satisfaction.

Willamina School District Bond Renewal Slated for May Ballot

At the November 14 Willamina City Council meeting session, Willamina Schools Superintendent Carrie Zimbrick presented the bond extension proposal. The current school bond that was passed in 2014 is set to mature in May. The bond levy rate has gone down from the original rate passed in 2014 of $.64 per thousand to $.53 per thousand because of the growth in the two school district communities. If the bond is passed, the State of Oregon will match $2.5 million dollars for the Willamina School District.

Carrie said, "The 2014 bond was a blessing it has allowed us to add five classrooms and a wonderful CTE shop, but we still have a classroom on the stage. and we have teachers on carts that move from classroom to classroom whenever someone has a vacant prep time.'

The six classrooms currently under construction for middle school students were not funded with the bond. They were funded with the emergency relief funding that was residual from the pandemic funding. Programs that had been cut when the students were merged into one campus have not returned due to lack of funding. When the school did some community engagement, the message taken from parents and the community was that they would like to see improvements to well-rounded educational experiences. Returning music programs at the elementary level and a culinary arts program formerly known as home economics at the middle and high school level are some of the improvements to education that they hope to provide with a bond renewal.

The top priorities of a bond would be the construction of five new classrooms and improved safety conditions such as traffic flow, security systems, lighting, parking, and walkways. Carrie said, "For anyone who's been at the school at 8:30 or 2:30 or 3:30, traffic flow is a nightmare. That campus was not designed as far as parking and traffic flow to have 900 students or families of 900 students picking up and dropping off." They had a survey done by a company that suggested adding a roundabout to improve traffic flow, which is one major project in consideration for safety.

Carrie is planning several public meetings in the near future to get feedback and prioritize.

ODFR Reminds People to be Careful of Gift Card Scams

The 2023 holiday shopping season is here and the Oregon Division of Financial Regulation (DFR) is reminding people to watch out for financial scams that can target their pocketbook, particularly gift card scams.

Gift card scams often start with a call, text, email, or social media message. Scammers will say anything to get you to buy gift cards – such as Google Play, Apple, or Amazon cards – and hand over the card number and personal identification number (PIN) codes.

According to the Federal Trade Commission, here are some common tactics scammers use:

1. Scammers will say it is urgent. They will say to pay them right away or something terrible will happen. They don't want you to have time to think about what they are saying or talk to someone you trust. Slow down. Don't pay. It is a scam.

2. Scammers will tell you which gift card to buy (and where). They might say to put money on an eBay, Google Play, Target, or Apple gift card. They might send you to a specific store – often Walmart, Target, CVS, or Walgreens. Sometimes, they will tell you to buy cards at several stores, so cashiers will not get suspicious. The scammer also might stay on the phone with you while you go to the store and load money onto the card. If this happens to you, hang up. It is a scam.

3. Scammers will ask you for the gift card number and PIN. The card number and PIN on the back of the card lets scammers get the money you loaded onto the card — even if you still have the card itself. Slow down. Don't give them those numbers or send them a photo of the card. It is a scam.

Scammers tell different stories to get you to buy gift cards so they can steal your money.

• Scammers say they are from the government. They say they are from the IRS, the Social Security Administration, or even the Federal Trade Commission. They say you have to pay taxes or a fine. However, government agencies will not contact you to demand immediate payment, and they never demand payment by gift card. It is a scam.

• Scammers say they are from tech support. They say they are from Microsoft or Apple and there is something wrong with your computer. They ask for remote access and say to pay them to get it fixed. Don't give them access to your computer. It is a scam.

• Scammers say they are a friend or family member with an emergency. If the scammer uses voice cloning, they may even sound just like your loved one. They ask you to send money right away – but not to tell anyone. It is a scam. If you are worried, contact the friend or relative to check that everything is all right.

• Scammers say you have won a prize. But first, they tell you to pay fees or other charges with a gift card. It is a scam. No honest business or agency will ever make you buy a gift card to pay them for a prize. And did you even enter to win that prize?

• Scammers say they are from your utility company. They threaten to cut off your service if you don't pay immediately. Utility companies don't work that way. It is a scam.

Scammers ask for money after they chat you up on a dating website. Romance scammers will make up any story to trick you into buying a gift card to send them money. Slow down. Never send money or gifts to anyone you have not met in person – even if they send you money first.
Scammers send a check for way more than you expected. They tell you to deposit the check and give them the difference on a gift card. Don't do it. It is a scam. That check will be fake and you will be out that money.

To help prevent yourself from getting scammed, DFR offers these reminders:

• Don't answer unknown numbers – block unwanted calls and text messages.

• Don't give personal identifying information to unsolicited calls, texts, or emails. Hang up, look up their number, and call them to verify.

• Be skeptical. Ask questions and be wary of offers "too good to be true."

• Resist the pressure to act immediately. Scammers use urgency as a tool.

• Stop and talk to someone you trust. Talking about it can help you spot the scam.

• Never pay someone who insists you pay with a gift card, money transfer, or cryptocurrency.

Remember, if it is too good to be true, it probably is.

If you feel you may have been scammed, the division's consumer advocates may be able to help. They can be reached at 1-888-877-4894 (toll-free) or dfr.financialserviceshelp@dcbs.oregon. gov.

Enjoy a Tart Treat for Holiday Meals

Cranberry sauce is a common accompaniment to turkey and other foods during the holiday season. It adds a refreshingly tart, yet sweet flavor to foods, and there's no shortage of ways to utilize cranberry sauce.

Individuals may be quick to grab a can of prepared cranberry sauce for their meals, but it's easy to whip up a batch of this beloved side with very little effort. The result is a cranberry sauce that is fresh and flavorful and does not feature the gelatinous consistency of some canned varieties. Ocean Spray, one of the leading providers of cranberry products, offers its "Fresh Cranberry Sauce" recipe.

Fresh Cranberry Sauce

Yields 21/4 cups 1 cup sugar

1 cup water

1 12-ounce package Ocean Spray[®] Fresh or Frozen Cranberries

Combine sugar and water in a medium saucepan. Bring to boil; add cranberries, return to boil. Reduce heat and boil gently for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cover and cool completely at room temperature. Refrigerate until serving time.

Note: If you like a more tart cranberry sauce, reduce the amount of sugar to taste. For a citrus twist, add the rind of half an orange when you add the cranberries. Then remove rind before serving. This will add a subtle citrus flavor to the sauce.

OnPoint Offers Seven Tips to Minimize Financial Stress this Holiday Season

The upcoming holiday season is promising to be a big one, with holiday spending expected to hit its highest level since before the pandemic. The average household plans to spend approximately $1,652 this season, according to the financial firm Deloitte. And while inflation is slowing, even the smallest growth can impact holiday spending budgets.

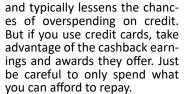

To help prepare Oregon and Southwest Washington consumers for the holiday season, On-Point Community Credit Union offers seven ideas for spreading cheer without breaking the bank.

"The holidays are filled with joy and merriment, but it can also be a time of financial stress and overspending," said Amy Reeves, Vice President and SW Washington Area Manager, On-Point Community Credit Union. "Creating a spending plan, prioritizing quality time with family and friends and encouraging community involvement can help you save money, while also creating lasting memories."

Here are OnPoint's seven tips for a budget-friendly holiday season:

Create a spending plan. Take time to plan your holiday spending. Start with an amount you're comfortable spending. Use savings you've set aside, determine your discretionary income or evaluate if you should buy on credit. Then, list people on your gift list, events and items you want to purchase during the holidays. Creating a spending plan will help lower the risk of surprise expenses.

Consider using cash, not credit cards. Using cash might be better if you're inclined to overspend. Cash is more tangible,

Make a savings pact. If your budget feels tight this holiday season, there's a chance your loved ones are feeling pressure, too. Ask them to join you in a savings pact, capping the amount spent on gifts. Consider a Secret Santa approach and draw names instead of buying gifts for everyone in your family.

Quality over quantity. Skip the traditional gift-giving and consider a homemade potluck-style dinner as your gift to each other. Pick a theme, assign one dish per person and see what your family can create!

You can also consider giving experiences instead of material items. The value of spending time with a loved one to go hiking or picnicking by a lake is far greater than a designer sweater or a kitchen appliance. It's equal parts quality family time and saving money.

Giving back is the best gift given. Instead of purchasing gifts for the adults in your family, plan a volunteer night at your local Ronald McDonald House or food pantry. Not only are you helping those in your community, but you're creating core memories. Spending time together while helping others? It's a win-win. Remember you don't have to outdo yourself. The pressure to outdo yourself with holiday shopping can be stressful and budget-busting. Social media makes it even harder, with high expectations set by friends, family, acquaintances or influencers. Have no fear. Stick to your budget, be creative and remember friends and family support your budget-consciousness.

Limit spending on yourself. Surrounded by sales this holiday season, it's easy to spend too much on yourself. While there's nothing wrong with a little selfcare, be aware of your extra spending and keep a limit on these items. Additional expenses can add up quickly, exceeding your well-intentioned budget. We may all be more budget-conscious this year, but following these tips will ensure you and your loved ones have joy-filled celebrations. Visit any of On-Point's 57 branch locations if you'd like more personalized help creating a budget for the upcoming holiday season.

TWO WILLAMINA HIGH GRIDDERS, Jim Commerford (84) and Barry Paris (64) have been named co-Player of the Week by their coach, Larry Reeser. Commerford, a 185-pound junior end who stands six feet four, has started all games this season at defensive end. Says his coach: "He is very aggressive and is one of the most improved players on the team. He is a sure tackler and shows tremendous determination. Paris, a 155-pound offensive guard at five foot, eight is a junior who also plays middle linebacker. Paris, says his coach, "has been a steady performer all season. He is a very sure blocker and tackler. Much of the season's success has been because of his efforts and determinations." Coach Reeser figures both players valuable assets to the Bulldogs in playoff games.

Bulldogs Advance to State Semis

Willamina's veteran fullback, Tim Blackwell, plowed through the Rainier line in the first quarter of their state quarterfinal elimination, then the Bulldogs blanked the Columbians the rest of the evening for a hard-fought, 7-0 victory.

Willamina will play host this Saturday in a daylight semifinal game with Coquille. The afternoon test on the Bulldog turf will commence at 2 p.m.

Coquille in the undefeated Class AA division along with Willamina has run roughshod over 10 opponents. Latest conquest for the Red Devils was Newport, a team which was runner-up to A-2 champion St. Mary's of Medford last year. Coquille scored twice on long passes and twice on long plunges in piling up a 27-0 victory over Newport. The semifinalists are led by John Van Burger, a quarterback who pitched 13 completions in 23 attempts for 259 yards passing against Newport.

Canby intercepted a Rainier pass of a fake punt after an exchange of fumbles with five minutes gone in the first frame. He returned the pigskin to the nine. From there, Blackwell plunged twice, the second from a mere two yards out. Dan Barnes added the night's only conversion via a kick.

From there on out, Rainier threatened briefly only late in the game and the alter Bulldogs picked up five more fumbles during the contest.

The visitors had a 7-1-1 record and they, like Willamina, lived up to expectations defensively after the first quarter faux pas.

But Willamina had a strong edge on statistics. The visitors failed to complete a pass in four attempts, while Willamina completed six out of nine for 45 yards.

The Bulldogs romped to 155 yards from scrimmage. Blackwell contributed 66 yards on 15 carries and Arlie Kilgore picked up 52 yards on one less. The visitors missed picking up 100 yards net and had only seven first downs to 11 firsters plus the TD for Willamina.

The two teams this Saturday have been absent for a few years from the state playoffs.

For Willamina, it's seven years. For Coquille, the date goes back to 1959.

Victor of this Saturday's match will square away for the state title the following week vs the winner of the Junction City, Grant Union game.

Junction City, which was rated "team to beat" for weeks in Class A-2 just squeaked by Lakeview last Saturday, Grant Union defeated Stayton, 33-8, the same afternoon.

Site of the championship game will be determined by the action this Saturday.

Silver Thaw, Snow Herald Advent of Winter

In the Pacific Northwest, the throes of a "silver that" last weekend, the Sheridan area escape with little damage.

Two atuomobiles were damaged and their drivers slightly injured Sunday night when they skidded on the icy pavement of the overpass of S. Bridge St. at the Hwy 18 overpass. They were Ralph Fillible and Hilmar Johnson.

Utility crews battle sporadic service outages in the surrounding area but considered the damage "less than might be expected."

While many schools in the mid-Willamette valley region were closed Monday because of icy conditions, Sheridan schools were in operation. Willamina schools were closed as were those in Dallas,, other parts of yamhill County, Portland, and Marion County.

Sunday's temperature readings shifted a bare two degrees in 24 hours.

The coldest here during the night was 28 degrees. The warmest during the day was 30 degrees.

The silver thaw condition began Saturday night with damp conditions and a lw mark of 30 degrees. The condition persisted Monday when the daytime's high mark was a mere 35 degrees.

Tuesday's warm-up brought relief, however, as the high mark was a pleasant 61 degrees. Rainfall for the past week has totaled slightly over an inch and one half which included skiffs of snow both Friday and Saturday.

WINTER CAME EARLY THIS YEAR. A skiff of snow was felt in Yamhill and Polk Counties last Friday night and a heavier blanket fell on the nearby Coast Range. Enough snow to blanket Sheridan streets (above) again descended Saturday but melted during the day, only to be followed by the silver thaw. A cold storm front from the east collided with a Pacific storm that was moving inland to set up conditions for the icey conditions which made all travel hazardous last Sunday and Monday.

Data Out on New Oats, Barley Varieties

New bulletins in the county extension office include one on Casbon barley and one on Lane oats, according the N. John Hansen, Polk County extension agent.

Casbon barley is a late-maturing six-row feed barley adapted to the winter barley growing areas of the Willamette Valley. In trials at Oregon State University it has outyielded other barleys, averaging for seven years slightly over two tons per acre.

Lane oats, a stiff-strawed winter oat with gray plump kernels, has been outyielding the ordinary gray winter oats by about 400 pounds per acre. Further information can be obtained from the county extension office. Message-Taping Due "Christmas Voices from Home," The American Red Cross program for message-taping, will be available, free of charge, to Yamhill County residents from 2-8 p.m. on Wednesday, December 2.

The program enables families of servicemen overseas or those servicemen hospitalized away from home to send a tape-recorded message with a photo in color.

Taping will take place next Wednesday in McMinnville at radio station KMCM on Lafayette Ave., according to Gordon Hall, Red Cross board member from McMinnville.

Those who can participate are immediate members of the serviceman's family-wives, children, parents, grandparents, brothers and sisters. One tape is allowed per serviceman. Pre-registration is requested.
