Well, the sun has arrived, and so have the daffodils. I won't talk about the weeds that like the sunshine. Maybe if I ignore them, they'll go away.

It's so nice to drive on the highway or through town and see all that pretty yellow showing up. It's a sure thing that Spring is on its way. I wonder just how long the sun will be shining. It feels pretty darn good after all that rain, but it is Oregon, right? Next, come the tulips and other pretty colored flowers.

Enjoying the sun and Spring of it all is "What's Up in Willamina."

Hampton Lumber Donates $1 Million to Sheridans CTEC

Hampton Lumber is pleased to announce a $1 million donation to the Sheridan School District to assist in development of the Barbara Roberts Career Technical (CTE) Center in Sheridan, Ore.

The planned 24,000 square-foot facility will offer hands-on training opportunities to high school students in Sheridan and the surrounding school districts. There is great disparity in CTE opportunities across Oregon and rural schools are underserved despite growing demand for such programming. This collaborative, regional CTE program will help local students build important skills and connect to well-paying jobs in and around their communities. The center will support training in Fire Science, Diesel Tech and Truck Driving, Manufacturing Technology and Agribusiness. Hampton's contribution will allow Sheridan School District to finish construction of the fire tower and commence demolition of the existing structure to make way for construction.

Sheridan School District is planning to develop the center in a phased approach, starting with programs for Firefighting/ EMT Training and Diesel Tech with Truck Driving. All CTE programs will include instruction on post-secondary opportunities through community colleges, universities, trade schools and apprenticeships. Students will be able to earn some college credits while in high school, and then complete the industry certification requirements at the college level.

Hampton has operated the sawmill in nearby Willamina, OR since 1942. In addition to its mill in Willamina, Hampton also operates two other sawmills in Oregon in the communities of Tillamook and Warrenton.

"As a local manufacturer, we see great value in enhancing CTE opportunities for local youth," said

Hampton CEO, Randy Schillinger. "The Barbara Roberts CTE Center will provide unique access to training opportunities for rural students and give them the start they need to embark on meaningful careers in the forest products sector and other local industries."

"Sheridan School District is grateful to Hampton Lumber for this large donation," said Dorie Vickery, Superintendent Sheridan School District. "Our region needs financial support so that we can provide CTE learning opportunities and train up the future workforce. The generosity of Hampton Lumber, to recognize the value of this project, will impact the lives of our students for years to come."

"The Career Technical Education facility being planned and constructed on Sheridan High School property will serve students, local businesses, and the future," said Former Governor Barbara Roberts. "This generous donation by Hampton Lumber to this critical "hands-on" education opportunity, will be a game changer. The West Valley region will gain new jobs, expand local companies, and make for healthier and safer communities. I am so grateful forthis major support from Hampton Lumber."

"Getting this center built is going to be a community effort and we're happy to be able to lend a hand," said Schillinger.

"The District would like to thank Representative Gomberg, Representative Elmer, Chemeketa Community College, the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, and the Yamhill County Board of Commissioners for their ongoing support of the project," said Vickery

A Message from the Sheridan Superintendent

Sheridan Community,

Earlier this school year the District started a strategic planning process. In the fall we surveyed parents, students, and staff. We also held focus group meetings with students, parents, community members, and district leaders. The information gathered at the focus group meetings has been compiled and placed into three categories: Student Experience, Employee Experience, and Community Engagement.

The Student Experience is about what we offer our students, and the goals for academic learning and a safe and welcoming school environment. It includes what classes we should offer students, along with extracurricular activities.

The Employee Experience is about hiring and retaining a highly qualified staff. We want our teachers and support staff to increase their ability to teach and work with students, increasing the positive student experience. We also know that the work environment is critical to retaining staff. The District needs to address issues such as negative student behavior, upkeep of facilities, and offering professional learning opportunities.

Community Engagement is about increasing the opportunities for the District to serve the Sheridan community, and how to better engage the community in conversations about our schools and programs.

The District recently released a survey that is for our community, parents, and district employees to complete. The survey includes each of the focus areas with a list of simple 12-15 goal statements. Participants in the survey will need to pick the top five items for each focus area. Determining five goals in each focus area will be the start of our strategic plan.

The draft strategic plan will be presented to the school board later this spring.

Thank you in advance for participating in our survey!

West Valley Community Campus Progress Updates

Submitted by George Robertson

The West Valley Community Campus -- the former Willamina High School -- will reopen as soon as safety upgrades are completed this year.

The board of directors for the campus has been working for several months to complete these upgrades.

First, we want to thank local, county and state agencies who have been working with us. Since we were notified at the end of last year we have held many meetings with the staff of these agencies. We hired an architect to develop preliminary plans for the upgrades and obtain approvals to meet fire safety requirements.

The various agencies have agreed we need to make two major upgrades to reopen.

1) Install a fire wall between the new and original sections of the building.

2) Install a fire detection (alarm) system in the entire building.

Total cost for these two projects are expected to cost more than $150,000.

In addition, we will need to install a sprinkler system in the building in the future.

The board is seeking bids for each of these and we will need to raise most of the money from grants and private donations.

If you have any questions, please call us at 503-929-4037 or email us at info@westvalleycommunitycampus.org.

The campus has been a valuable resource since it opened 10 years ago. The building has been used for dozens of activities including the Kiwanis July 4th pancake feed, the Wet Season Music programs, the Coastal Hills Art show. Local groups like the Coastal Hills Quilters have used the campus on a regular basis and there have been many successful fundraisers including the Sheridan Food Bank and Rotary Club.

Part of the campus has been turned into a community garden and classrooms used for art classes, music lessons and tai chi.

Thanks to many dedicated volunteers who show up the third Saturday of each month and funds from grants and donations a large part of the roof has been replaced and a new heating system installed.

The board is also working on plans to develop a community kitchen, install new flooring in the gym and getting electricity at the football stadium.

Spring Whale Watch Week Returns to the Oregon Coast

Oregon State Parks will host Spring Whale Watch Week along the Oregon Coast Saturday, March 23 through Sunday, March 31.

Trained Oregon State Park volunteers will be stationed at 15 sites along the Oregon Coast to help visitors spot whales and their calves and answer questions from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. daily March 23-31. The sites are some of the best places to watch for whales on the Oregon Coast.

The spring event is three days longer than last year and might include better odds of seeing gray whales on their journey home from the calving lagoons in Mexico in light of today's announcement from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA).

NOAA announced the end of an Unusual Mortality Event, a significant die-off of the gray whale population, that had affected the marine mammals since 2019.

"The latest counts indicate that the gray whale population has likely turned the corner and is beginning to recover. It's a perfect time for people to see them as they swim north with new calves to feed," said Michael Milstein, public affairs officer with NOAA Fisheries.

Researchers counted about 412 calves last year, which was almost double the number from the year before. That helped signal an end to the Unusual Mortality Event and a likely turnaround in numbers as the species begins to rebound.

An estimated 14,500 gray whales are expected to swim past Oregon's shores from late winter through June as part of their annual migration back to Alaska.

"Spring is a great time for whale watching because the gray whales are usually closer to shore on their return trip, typically around a mile or so out, and the weather can be better for viewing. But don't forget your rain gear just in case," said Park Ranger Peter McBride.

A map of volunteer-staffed sites is available online on the official event webpage: https://oregonstateparks.org/index.cfm?do=thingstodo.dsp_whale-Watching

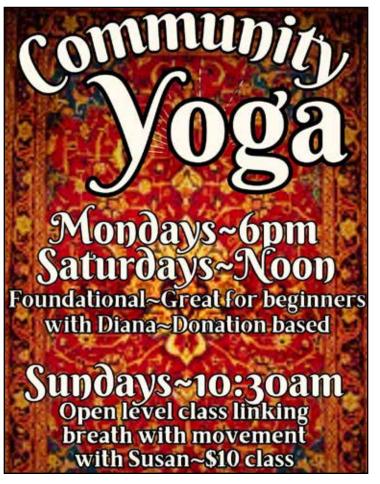

The Whale Watching Center in Depoe Bay will be open 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. March 23-31. Visitors to the center can enjoy interactive whale exhibits and take in the panoramic ocean views. Binoculars are provided. Rangers from Oregon State Parks will also be on hand to answer questions about the whales.

All Whale Watch Week visitors are encouraged to dress for the weather, to bring binoculars and to follow beach safety guidelines such as remaining out of fenced areas, knowing the tide schedule and keeping an eye on the surf at all times. Go to https://visittheoregoncoast.com/beach-safety/ for a list of safety tips.

For more information about coast parks and campgrounds, visit oregonstateparks.org.

Visitors are encouraged to share their photos and videos from Spring Whale Watch on social media using #OregonStateParks and #ORWhaleWatch24.

Enjoy a Taste of Mesoamerican Tradition Easily

Tamales are a traditional Mesoamerican dish made of a masa dough and fillings, and then steamed in a corn husk or banana leaves. While tamales certainly are delicious, the time-consuming nature of making them may compel some to avoid preparing them at home. This recipe for "Chicken Tamale Pie" offers the flavors of tamales in a single-pan dish. Try it, courtesy of "30-Minute Meal Prep" (Sourcebooks) by Robin Miller.

Chicken Tamale Pie

Serves 4

1 (8.5 -ounce) box corn muffin

mix (such as Jiffy) 1/3 cup milk

2 tablespoons unsalted butter, melted

1 large egg

2 teaspoons taco seasonina 1/2 cup corn, canned, fresh or frozen (thawed if frozen)

2 cups shredded, cooked chicken 1 cup red enchilada sauce, divid-

1 cup shredded Monterey Jack cheese, or a blend of cheddar and Jack, or Mexican cheese

Fresh cilantro leaves (whole or chopped) for serving

1. Preheat the oven to 400 F. Coat a 9-inch pie plate or oven-safe skillet (such as cast iron) with cooking spray.

2. In a large bowl, whisk together the corn muffin mix, milk, butter, egg, and taco seasoning. Fold in the corn. Transfer the mixture to the prepared pan, and smooth the surface. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes, until a wooden toothpick inserted near the center comes out clean or with moist bits clinging to it.

3. Meanwhile, in a large skillet or saucepan, combine the chicken and 3/4 cup of the enchilada sauce. Set the pan over medium heat and warm the mixture through.

4. Using the end of a wooden spoon or spatula, poke holes all over the cornbread in the pan. Pour the remaining enchilada sauce into the holes. Top the cornbread with the chicken mixture. Top with the cheese.

5. Bake for 5 minutes, until the cheese melts.

6. Top with fresh cilantro, and serve.

Bulldogs Catch Only Win in First Week

By Janos "John" Vamos

With Mother Nature unwilling to let the Spartans play their first two matches, it was fitting that the Spartan's baseball opening game was against the Bulldogs. With the Sheridan field unplayable yet, the game was moved to the dryer but still damp Willamina High School field.

The Spartans took an early 3-0 lead in the first inning, but a couple of errors allowed the Bulldogs to tie it up. After that, it was all Willamina, with the Bulldogs coming away with a 13-3 win over the Spartans. With that win, the Bulldog Baseball team was the only one to catch a mark in the win column, with both baseball and softball having a rough week.

Friday, the Bulldog baseball got bit by the other Bulldogs from Creswell, losing 0-12. Saturday, the Spartan baseball squad pulled a doubleheader at home versus Harrisburg Eagles, as the Eagles soared to a 21-1 and 38-0 win over Sheridan.

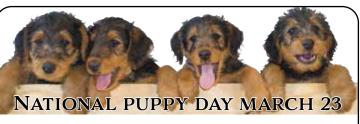

The lady Spartans dropped their first two matches of the season, losing 0-14 to Blanchet Catholic and 0-19 to Harrisburg. The Willamina softball squad did not see any action last week.

Vincent Zembal (14) slides into second base as Dylan Graham (1) and Steven Melar (9) attempt to get the out.

Landon Risseeuw (4) goes head over heels as Rhyne Nelson (8) looks on. The wet weather earlier in the week made sliding a hazardous adventure in the Bulldog's win over the Spartans Thursday.

Faulconer-Chapman at Receiving End of Play it Forward Musical Donation

Last Thursday, the Faulconer-Chapman had a special assembly and performance from Mr. Travis, a member and music teacher from Play it Forward, a non-profit organization founded by Michael Allen Harrison and the Snowman Foundation to bring music to all despite barriers to musical education.

The major highlight of the assembly was when Jon Sherwood, one of the music teachers at Faulconer-Chapmen, started telling the K-5 grade students in attendance about the full table of musical instruments that Play it Forward was donating to the school.

The instruments are all gently used and graciously donated to the program by other musical programs no longer in need, programs that are no longer being funded, and private donors to the organization. If you have a gently used instrument, no matter the type, and would like to see it put to good use again or to make a monetary donation, you can contact Play if Forward by going to www.pifmusic.org

Twirlers' Present at Talent Show Assembly

Unknown talent was brought out in the open Friday, March 17, when several members of the Twirlers' class presented a talent show.

The assembly consisted of solo piano and accordion numbers, a skit, and twirling exhibition.

Carolyn Ellis demonstrated the different methods of twirling performed at the Twirling contest which she attended at Salem.

June Gustafson, Marlene McKinley, and Jeannette Singleton dramatized the song, "I Didn't Know The Gun Was Loaded." They were accompanied by Alta Kolln at the piano.

Sheridan Man Files for County Commissioner

L. A. Early, Sheridan farmer, filed Friday for the office of county commissioner on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Early advocates that Yamhill County citizens be better informed on the county's business. He believes better and more information on county affairs would give the citizens at better understanding of their govern-

Mr. early, a native of Tennessee, came to Oregon in 1919, and has spent most of the past 30 years in and near Sheridan. He spent several years in highway construction work, as well as the maintenance of machinery and equipment for county roads. Nine Baton Twirlers Get Perfect Scores

The baton twirlers of Willamina High School were judged Thursday evening, March 2, to determine which of the 27 girls would represent the high school on the following Thursday at the Willamette Valley Tournament. On the 27 girls, nine received perfect scores. Individual grading included inspection, military salute and marching, twirling, and routine.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Bockes and Mrs. Plummer, statewide known judges, and the Yamhill Sheriff's Posse Twirlers, who performed for 20 minutes.

A banquet was held at 8 o'clock in the library by the Willamina Twirlers, and the guests attend-

Carolyn Ellis won the honor of being picked as representative to the Willamette Valley Tournament. The other eight girls who received perfect scores are Joan Bowers, Sharon McGrew, Lover Cook, Jeanette Singleton, June Gustafson, Joan Van Horn, Alta Kolln, and Ila Banyard.

The girls started their twirling practice under Mrs. Aronsen at the first of the school year as beginners to twirling.

4-H Plaque Awarded to Yamhill County

Boys and girls in Yamhill County who took part in the National 4-H Better methods Electric program last year had a hand in winning the handsome bronze and green plaque recently presented to the county extension office by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation. Yamhill county was chosen by the state club office at Oregon State College for doing the most outstanding job in the project. Every year one county in each state is given this recognition.

Typical farm jobs which were analyzed and better methods put into practice were washing and ironing clothes, canning and freezing foods, barn chores, and home heating, reported William M. Perry, county extension agent in charge of club work.

Results in cooking and home heating were most gratifying, stated Mr. Perry, since the improvements became permanent and did much to bring about better living on the farm. The members took a great deal of interest in their individual problems and were very proud of their accomplishments in the program, according to the report.

Shall We Save Daylight

It was announced this week that our neighboring towns of Dallas and Sheridan, as well as Newberg and a number of other Valley cities will change over to "daylight saving" time on April 30. To date, no decision has been made by the Willamina city council as to whether we shall also make the change.

Kiwanians Take Up Chicken Raising

Six Kiwanians from Sherwood visited the local club on Tuesday bringing with them 200 twoweek-old baby chicks which are destined eventually to be the main course at a large Kiwanis gathering in Newberg. The Kiwanis club of Newberg started the stunt by taking the chicks to Sherwood and providing that the Sherwood club feed and shelter them for two week and then pass them on to some other club. The Willamina club entrusted the chicks to the care of Virgil Heider after taking up a collection to pay for their feed.

The guests from Sherwood were: W. S. Bowen, Harry e. Garstka, Art Sounders, Marcel Hite, L. B. Drummond, and Godfrey Atrope. State Police Sergeant W. M. Roach of McMinnville and young John Howell, son of Rev. Emil Howell, were also guests of the club.

Scouts to Have Court of Honor for Advancement

Monday evening a group of men interested in scouting acted as a reviewing board for the Scouts who will advance in rank at the next Court of Honor, which will be held Monday evening, March 20, at the Scout cabin. The Court is public, and parents and friends of the boys are invited. It will begin at 7:30.

The board Monday night consisted of Van Drew, Newland Neely, and Carl John.

The following people are now aiding the Scout troop by being advancement examiners: A. D. Newby, first aid, public and personal health; Orval Thompson, aviation subjects and printing; V. o. Fun Night Talent Show was Big Success

It was "Standing Room Only" at the Fun Night program at the high school last Friday night, when local talent put on a show which ranged all the way from slapstick comedy to serious musical selections. The estimated crowd of about 750 people enjoyed every minute of it if the enjoyment can be measured by the applause.

One of the most elaborate productions was tom Thumb wedding put on by grade school children under the able coaching of Mrs. Ethel Ray. One which caused a great deal of merriment was the French can-can as danced by a group of well-

Proceeds of the show, more than $200, will be divided between the speech and drama departments of the high school, and the grade school PTA, co-sponsors.
