Sheridan Hometown Days; Rain Doesn't Slow Down True Oregonians

Despite Mother Nature literally "Raining on our parade," many still braved the elements for fun in the liquid sunshine and support of the annual community event that included new rides and games for those that ventured out for the celebration.

Throughout this issue are the winners of events, the true Oregonians, who never let a little rain slow them down, and other images from the Hometown Days.

Obituary

Shirley Hamilton

April 19, 1942 - June 12, 2025

It is with great sorrow, yet profound joy in Jesus, that we share the passing of our beloved Shirley Hamilton, who gracefully entered into the presence of her Lord and Savior on June 12, 2025. Shirley was a vibrant spirit, a testament to God's love, and a constant source of encouragement and light for everyone blessed to know her. She lived each day with unwavering faith, always looking forward to her heavenly home.

Shirley was born on April 19, 1942 to Rosa Anna and Vernon G. Miller. She grew up in Middlebury and Elkhart, Indiana with her eight siblings. As a little girl, she dreamed of becoming a missionary nurse. After graduating from Bethany Christian School in Rosten, Indiana in 1960, she entered the Voluntary Service program of the Mennonite church, embarking on a 1-year term of service Portland, Oregon. While working as a Nurse Aide at Good Samaritan Hospital, she met a (in her words) "handsome, kind, courteous, Christian fellow that I took a liking to..." They dated that year and drove back to Elkhart to be married on Nov. 4, 1961. In 1965, they moved back to Portland where Shirley worked at Good Samaritan Hospital until her retirement.

Shirley lived out her love for God and others with remarkable generosity. One of her favorite things was cheering for and feeding all her "kids." The amount of food she made for high school and college sports teams, class trips, church youth groups, and music groups was truly beyond comprehension. If she wasn't busy supporting her sons, Rex and Kent, and grandkids in their athletic, academic, and musical endeavors, she was supporting someone else's children. She found immense joy in cheering for those she loved.

Shirley naturally gave of her time and talents. She had a lovely voice and sang songs of praise throughout her life—first in church choir as a child, then with her husband, Bruce, and their friends in an octet at Portland Mennonite Church, and later with the Singing Christmas Tree. She was also a talented seamstress, making countless gifts including comforters and baby blankets for those she knew and to donate to charity sales. More recently, she spent hours decorating Christmas Cards for Gospel Echoes to use in ministry. She also devoted countless hours to praying for those she loved. If Shirley met you, she loved you and likely prayed for you many times. Her prayers, hugs, and encouragement will be deeply missed.

A celebration of Shirley's life will be held on Aug 2, 2025 at 10:00 am. Zion Mennonite Church, 6124 S Whiskey Hill Rd, Hubbard, OR.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Shirley's honor may be sent to either:

Columbia Christian School, 9101 E Burnside St., Portland, OR 97216 or <https://columbia-christian.app.neoncrm.com/forms/donate>

Gospel Echoes <https://gospel-echoes.com/donate/>

Six Charged With Offenses During Protests Near Local Ice Office

Six defendants made their first appearances in federal court today after committing various offenses—including assaulting federal officers and creating a hazard on federal property—during ongoing protest gatherings near a U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) office in South Portland.

Samuel Tate Berry, 29, who has recently resided in Gearhart and Seaside, Oregon, as well as Kelso, Washington, has been charged by criminal complaint with the misdemeanor offenses of assaulting a federal officer and failure to comply with official signs and directions.

Juniper Perry Weed, 21, of Jackson, Michigan, has been charged by criminal complaint with the misdemeanor offenses of assaulting a federal officer and failure to comply with official signs and directions.

Eduardo Diaz Guardado, 22, of Vancouver, Washington, has been charged by criminal complaint with the misdemeanor offense of assaulting a federal officer.

Andrew James Beason, 53, of Beaverton, Oregon, has been charged by information with the misdemeanor offense of failing to obey a lawful order.

Nokomis Lee, 22, of Grand Ronde, Oregon, has been charged by information with the misdemeanor offense of failing to obey a lawful order.

Liam Harry Houpis, 22, also of Vancouver, has been charged by information with the misdemeanor offense of creating a hazard on federal property.

According to court documents and information shared in court, on June 18, 2025, several hundred people gathered near an ICE office in South Portland where, for more than week, individuals have repeatedly targeted the building and various federal law enforcement officers with mortar fireworks, rocks, bricks, glass bottles, signs, and make-shift shields. At approximately 6:38pm, federal officers on site were informed that six official vehicles were en route and needed to enter the property via a vehicle gate blocked by the crowd.

After issuing warnings and asking the group to move, federal officers opened the vehicle gate and advanced on the crowd to clear the driveway for the arriving vehicles. Defendants Berry and Weed failed to comply with the officers' directions and, while being placed under arrest, assaulted officers. Later the same evening, a crowd again blocked the building's vehicle gate and, after being warned a second time, were cleared to allow law enforcement vehicles to exit the property. During this second clearing, at approximately 10:55pm, defendants Beason and Lee failed to obey lawful orders issued by law enforcement. A fifth defendant, Guardado, was observed possessing a high-powered laser pointer that he pointed at a federal officer, striking the officer in the eye and temporarily blinding him.

The following evening, on June 19, 2025, several dozen individuals again gathered at the South Portland ICE office, when, at approximately 10:20pm, defendant Houpis was observed using a drill and screws on plywood doors affixed to the building's exterior in an attempt to prevent federal officers from exiting the building. All six defendants made their first appearances in federal court today before a U.S. Magistrate Judge and were released on conditions pending future court proceedings.

Criminal informations and complaints are only accusations of a crime, and defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.

Get Involved Says Willamina 4th of July Grand Marshal Jerry Buczynski

Tucked away in a tiny office stuffed with memorabilia of past teams, gear for future teams, and almost half a lifetime of memories at the Willamina High School, Jerry Buczynski, the long-time figure of the Willamina athletic program talked about the past, his future, saying "Nope, no Walmart greeter for me," and that he was absolutely surprised at being chosen the Grand Marshal of the Willamina Old Fashioned 4th of July celebration. "I heard it through the grapevine; somebody on the committee called my wife, but no one actually called me," he said with a laugh, adding, "Then, when we were doing a highway clean-up, a member of the committee informed me, so that was the first official notification I got."

Jerry, who is retired at the end of this school year, got his start at Willamina High School in 1983 as the Junior Varsity basketball coach. For the past 42 years, he has had his hand at one time or another in almost every sport at the school but is most well known for his role as the head basketball coach and athletic director of the Bulldogs.

When asked how he felt about being chosen, he stated, "It's pretty humbling; I don't do this for things; I do it for the kids and always have. You like to have a pat on the back once in a while, but you don't do this for that."

"When I came here, I was young, and I thought I knew it all; I'll be here two to three years, then move on; I'm not going to be in Willamina that long. If someone had told me in 1983 that I would be here for 42 years if I had $200, I'd bet against it, and I would have lost it," he laughed, adding, "I had chances to leave two different times, went through interview processes and got offered jobs and turned them down. I felt like this is where I'm supposed to be, and I've never regretted that."

On the topic of what to do to make a difference in the community, Jerry exclaimed, "Give back! I started doing highway clean-up a little over a year ago. Why the heck was I not doing that before? That was cool; that was really a lot of fun. Then I started getting some kids involved; we must have had around 15 kids out there; to me, that's the really neat part. Wherever you are, just get involved."

Jerry Buczynski (left) was inducted into the Willamina High School Hall of Fame in May to honor his involvement and impact on the Bulldog Athletic Program.

One of his favorite sayings was from Forrest Edward "Frosty" Westering, long-time football coach from Pacific Lutheran University, stating, "Make the big time where you are." Jerry added that it doesn't have to be a big place in order to make a big impact.

Asked about why he thought he was chosen, he jokingly said, "Well, they probably asked about eight other people, and they turned it down," before more seriously replying, "I don't know, I could say something, but then it feels like I'm patting myself on the back and that's not who I am."

When you spend 42 years doing things for kids, maybe somebody noticed, I don't know." He mentioned that it's been "pretty cool" coaching kids the past few years of the kids he coached towards the beginning of his career. "It was eye-opening this past year when Mark Littlejohn passed away; I know he's not the first one of former players that we've lost since I've been here. I got asked by the family to speak at his funeral. You're not going to say no to something like that, and I'm glad I didn't because I got to say some things in that area that maybe I only knew about from his time in high school that people who knew him later may not have known. Those kids are in their late 50s, and I still look at them as kids. I have a basketball that I already took home that was signed by some of my earliest players, and on the front of it, it says Jerry's kids, and that's still how I look at them."

Jerry's had little history with the Willamina 4th of July celebration. He and his wife usually traveled to her hometown of Lone, a town even smaller than Willamina, located 80 miles east of The Dalles, to celebrate with her family there. "I can't remember the year, but we used to have an old yellow van; we were taking a team to, I think it was Hong Kong, so we had a portable basketball hoop on the back of the trailer, and as we went through the parade, and had kids shooting baskets. It was an advertising that we were going on this trip," he recalled.

When asked what the Willamina 4th of July means to him, Jerry stated, "It's what the town is known for. It's celebrating America, and when you do it in a little town, it means more here than it does in a lot of places."

Jerry wouldn't change a thing about the current Willamina 4th of July celebration. He stated that the people running it are doing a great job of reaching out and getting people involved. He added though, "Like up here at the school and the booster club, it's the same people for so many years, and they get tired, so if I changed anything (about the 4th), it would be that younger people start stepping in and get involved in helping run it, because they are going to be the next ones to helping run it later on, and I don't think there's enough of them doing that."

What kept him in the City of Willamina? Jerry responded, "I like it here. Willamina is not for everyone, but I seem to fit. We would have moved here at one time, but when we looked for a house, we couldn't find one here. I wish there were more apartments for the younger kids, the ones that do stay.

There's no apartments here for them, and you end up losing those kids." He stated that Willamina Lumber has done so much for the community, with many kids heading out after graduation and having a good life. Still, he specifically named Jerry Bailey, "He's unbelievable; I know he's worked out there a long time, but what he does to help this school is unbelievable."

To the kids of the West Valley graduating this year, Jerry has these words, "Follow what you want to do. If it's somewhere else, then that's what you have to do, but don't ever forget about coming back, whether it's a visit or someday you move back, because this is home to many of them. The 4th of July is a good reason to return for at least a day. It's funny when I see kids that come back after being away for a while say that things really haven't changed, they've changed, but they haven't; that is the neat thing about a small town."

Jerry Buczynski, in February, stood in the center court of a packed gym at the last home game of his 42-year basketball coaching career at Willamina High School. Students and former players from far and wide attended the event.

Willamina Held City Wide Cleanup

The City of Willamina conducted a City Wide Cleanup event this last Saturday, June 21.

The event gave residents of Willamina a chance to drop off items not easily stuffed into the garbage and recycle bins to be taken away by Western Oregon Recology, including furniture, car batteries, electronics, scrap metal, and yard debris.

The City of Willamina set up a collection point at the end of Adams St. Almost three full garbage dumpsters and 30 tires were collected. City Manager Bridget Meneley estimated that 6,000 pounds of scrap metal were dropped off at the collection point.

An organization that also benefited from the cleanup was the Willamina Food Pantry, with the City of Willamina suggesting a two-can donation with each drop-off to help stock the shelves.

This event was only available for the residents of Willamina. Still, the City of Willamina will host a mattress recycling event from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 26, at Willamina City Hall. The mattress drop-off will be open to all Yamhill and Polk County residents.

Willamina Councilor Barry Wilson does some dumpster diving to make more space as residents of Willamina lined up to drop off more scrap, garbage, and tires at the Willamina City Wide Cleanup.

Total Destruction Preps for Mud Drags

Started around 25 years ago, the annual Willamina Mud Drags that will take place this Saturday, June 28, has become a staple of summer events for the West Valley Community and a significant boost to the Willamina 4th of July Fireworks show.

The race, which runs the week before the 4th of July, is full of vehicles of all kinds, from stock 4-cylinder to the popular open-class featuring cars with multiple modifications and the cause for full coverage over the walkway approximately 100 feet behind the start of the drag race to others dawning hearing protection in one form or another. Recently, the addition of side-by-sides has been authorized for use in the mud drags. "It was a muddy mess out there in the pouring down rain this Saturday," Sherry mentioned about working in the storm that swept the area this last weekend.

The planning for this event starts around the April timeframe when Mud Drag Coordinator Sherry Dawkins of the approximately 30-member Total Destruction Racing Team (TDRT) starts hitting the pavement to find sponsors for the event. About a month before the event, members of TDRT hit the dirt and performed mowing, putting up safety barriers, weeding, and prepping the grounds to get things ready for the big event. This year, the Willamina 4th of July Committee helped support the prep, along with other volunteers like K&E Excavating, Charles Quinton, Jeff Lockwood, Chris Lucia, Linnie Ledbetter, Bill Cawley, and Cliff Roselle for donating time or equipment to push the mud around for the race.

Sherry stated that in the first 10-15 years of the mud drags, the maximum 110 allowed participants were hit year after year, and teams as far as North Dakota, as far as Sherry remembers, traveled to run the mud, but as teams dwindled and broke apart, the current participation has dipped down to just around 70-80 entries in the past few years. "Too many of the kids now are getting into street bikes," Sherry stated about the drop in mud dragsters.

Sherry said that this year, bleachers will be available for seating thanks to the Delphian School and Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, but still advises individuals to bring chairs as seating will be limited. Awnings will be allowed only in the back area of the General Admissions area. Most of all, she mentioned that the best thing the community should do to make this year a success is come down, have some fun, be safe, and drop some dollars off to support the Willamina 4th of July fireworks.

Horoscopes June 25-July 1

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20

Nothing is too much for you to handle right now, Aries. But don't take on even more as a way to prove something to someone. That could be a recipe for trouble.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21

Your physical energy is strong right now, Taurus. This may work to your advantage regarding your relationship. Your desire for love and passion is intense right now, so explore it.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21

Matters of the heart may need a little work right now, Gemini. If things haven't been going too smoothly, you might have to examine the dynamics of the relationship and make changes.

CANCER - June 22/July 22

You have an incredible passion for life, Cancer. It's attracting friends and family members into your circle. Partner with someone who shares your energy.

LEO - July 23/Aug 23

Leo, if things aren't going smoothly at work, be careful about blaming yourself. You need to look at the bigger picture and figure out who all the players are in this situation.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, even when others may count you out, you can be full of surprises. Do not let a recent success go entirely to your head, however. You still have a lot of work to do.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

Libra, even though you may like to plan ahead and take things slowly, sometimes you need to throw caution to the wind. When an opportunity all but falls in your lap, run with it.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

Scorpio, recent conflicts may ignite some mixed feelings, which could prove confusing. Think about solutions that potentially benefit all around you, including yourself.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

You might not be having the best luck right now, Sagittarius, but things can change quickly. Keep your chin up and your eyes set on your goal. Networking may help you move forward.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

Capricorn, if you have any health questions, make an appointment to talk to someone right away. It is important to stay ahead of things.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

Something that has been taking up a bulk of your time is finally coming to a close, Aquarius. This will be a big relief and a lot of stress will be lifted in the process.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20

People keep coming up to you expecting all of the answers, Pisces. Don't feel pressured to please everyone. Right now you may be content to enjoy some alone time.

Warm Fuzzies

The Revitalization Board would like to extend our warmest and most sincere thanks to the Chief Fairy Tale Facilitator, our Ringmaster of the Realm of Tales, Matthew Huegli! Hometown Days would not be here without you. Your passion, leadership and hard work remind us of what community is all about.

We would also like to say thank you to our wonderful volunteers who helped us pull off a successful food court & beer garden at Hometown Days, despite the massive challenge of pouring rain and chilly weather! A special shoutout to Lucy Hebert for her many hours of hard work, also to big thank you to Nick Giannettino, Lachlan Wydro, Sean Michael our amazing grill master, Molly and Jack Griffith, Justin Weston, Damon Lequin, Dave owner of Treedemption Gardens, April Ott, Lisa Bonita, Dorothea Lee, Lecia Myers, Beckett Gailunas and many others who helped us throughout the day and into the late evening. Also thank you to Sheridan Rural Fire Protection District, West Valley Community Campus, Delphian School, the Grand Sheramina Food Bank, Sheridan Building Materials & Feed Supply and last but not least West Valley Mercantile for providing us with supplies and support! The Revitalization Board thanks all of you and this event could not have happened without you!

The deadline to register is July 7. All those who register will automatically be eligible for a $50 drawing to celebrate a decade of the City Wide Sale.

Simpson Electric Present Quality of Life Electrified at Sheridan Chamber Meeting

McMinnville-based Simpson Electrical Construction Co. hosted last Friday's Sheridan Chamber of Commerce meeting.

Kevin Simpson, owner and president of the company, started his presentation by handing out some shocking marketing items: pens that, when pressed, produce a minor shock that he said was the equivalent of touching a 9V battery with either your finger or your tongue. He stated their slogan, "Simpson Electrical, your quality of life, electrified," which was joined by a few of the chamber members who had work done by the company and finished the slogan.

Simpson Electric, which has been in business since 1999, focuses on small, non-construction electrical service, maintenance, and repair for the Yamhill County area. They perform electrical inspection, rewiring, fuse box and circuit breaker replacement, generator and heat pump installation and maintenance, HVAC system maintenance and repair, and help with home energy efficiency, to name a few of the services they offer.

Though not listed on their website, they employ a licensed hearth technician to install and maintain wood, pellet, and gas stoves and chimneys. They have also added solar energy to their repertoire of services.

"We are a service company; not only do we do the small projects, but we are also there to take care of the existing equipment," Kevin stated.

A number of the chamber members spoke during his presentation, stating their personal experience with the company and how pleased they were with the service.

Kevin said that his most significant customer service focus is ensuring prompt answering or returning phone calls and making every effort to arrive at a job on time. They utilize software that manages the communication between them and customers, allowing conversations to be managed via text, including photos. A text message with a picture of the technician when they are on the way to the job is sent so customers can ensure that the right person is conducting the work. Kevin said, "It's all about communication; if it's anything that would aggravate me, I try not to be to customers."

Matt Huegli, treasurer of the chamber, stated that he has utilized Simpson Electric for several years. "His quality is bar none," he expressed, adding that over time, electrical wiring and connections can break down over time Kevin and his team can inspect for hot spots and dangers behind the walls using a special tool, which is beneficial in preventing a house fire. If someone has lived in a house for several years or purchasing a home, it is a great tool to prevent a disaster from happening, and it isn't that expensive, especially compared to the cost if one did occur. Kevin added, "Electrical is designed not to produce heat. If you run your fingers down the electrical panel and feel any heat, call me."

JBO 8th Drops Game vs McMinnville

The Willamina JBO 8th team took on the Mac JBO squad at home in Willamina last Thursday evening.

The Dawgs had a hard time connecting with the ball during the match-up, with Carter Felton, Jaxxon Pownall, and Brett Hem-bry getting the only hits, all singles, out of 21 Dawg at-bats and 14 strikeouts against the McMinnville pitcher.

Mac got on the board first, scoring one run 1st, and added four more in the top of the 3rd inning. Hunter Watkins took over on the mound for the Dawgs and allowed three runs in the 5th inning before Willamina's Felton would put the Dawgs on the board after a wild pitch and error by the Mac squad.

Watkins shut down McMinnville for the remainder of the game, but the Dawgs couldn't get a rally going, losing 2-8 to Mac.

Felton picked up the loss, pitching four innings and allowing 5 hits, 1 earned run, and striking out 4.

Watkins pitched three innings, allowing 2 hits, no earned runs, and striking out 9.

Carter Felton spent four innings on the hill, allowing 1 earned run on 5 hits and striking out 4 during the Willamina JBO 8th game against McMinnville.

Hudson Hubbell makes a catch on the backside of the infield during Willamina's JBO 8th 2-8 loss against McMinnville.

ODHS Distributing Emergency Kits And Batteries to Eligible Individuals

Older adults and people with disabilities who qualify for assistance can request free emergency kits and batteries to stay safe during disasters.

Emergencies like wildfires, heat waves and floods can happen at any time. It's important to be ready. But for many people, it's hard to know where to begin. They also may not have money for supplies. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Oregon Department of Human Services (ODHS) saw that many people needed help getting ready for emergencies. This was especially true for older adults, people with physical disabilities, and those with intellectual or developmental disabilities (I/DD). Many of them rely on electricity for important medical and safety equipment.

To help, ODHS got support from the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA). Two ODHS programs — the Office of Aging and People with Disabilities (APD) and the Office of Developmental Disabilities Services (ODDS)

— used ARPA funds to give emergency supplies to those in need.

What's available now?

APD has about 18,000 emergency kits and 1,200 power stations available for older adults and people with physical disabilities who get Medicaid in-home supports. Those who qualify get long-term services and supports through APD and some county governments. These items include:

- Emergency kits — These kits are filled with supplies like flashlights, blankets, first aid items and food.

- Power stations — These are portable, rechargeable batteries. They can provide power when the electricity is out.

If you think you qualify and want supplies, please contact your case manager. If you don't know who your case manager is, call or visit the local office where you receive APD services. ODHS lists contact information for all state and county offices that provide services.

No bike? No Problem, as this young man rides on the front of his friend's bike in the parade.

Brian Prevett (right) works on adding a bell to a youngster's bicycle.

The parade did have at least one catastrophe, as this little lady crashed and burned, but she continued to finish the parade.

This kid grabbed a bag to toss at a cornhole board, all while riding his bike at the kid's rodeo.

The determined look of a kid as he focused on finishing the obstacle course at the kids' rodeo.

This young lady happily waved at everyone watching the Home-town Days Kids Parade.

Sheridan Show Sets Attendance Record

Sheridan - Attendance and participation at the annual Phil Sheridan Days and Rodeo Saturday and Sunday set an all-time record for this community's widely known celebration and rodeo. Attendance at Saturday morning parade was estimated between 13,000 and 15,000 and the entries were acclaimed as the best and the greatest number in the event's history.

The Saturday and Sunday Phil Sheridan Rodeo was presented to large crowds, with Clark Maddox, Weiser, Idaho, cowboy winning the all-around championship.

Ballston won the parade sweepstakes with a historical float. U. S. National Bank won the commercial division, Rotary club the organizations division, and the Portland American Legion Post No. 1 drum and bugle corps won the marching units division.

Winners of events at the Phil Sheridan Rodeo were: calf roping, Jack Percifield, Wickenburg, Ariz.; bareback riding, Clark Maddox, Weiser, Idaho; bulldogging, Bob Henry, Portland. The Brahma bulls were too tough for the cowhands, and there was not a successful ride during the two-day show.

Convention Reports at Kiwanis

The program for the Kiwanis meeting this week consisted of reports on the international convention, given by Virgil Heider, Ray Morrison, and Lloyd Lewis. Included among the reports was the reading of a convention speech, "The Key to Peace," given by Clarence Manion, dean of the Notre Dame College of Law. A condensation of this address will be published in the Times at a later date.

There were 15 members present and one guest, Kiwanian Jack Hubbard of McMinnville; this being one of the smallest groups that has been in attendance for some time.

New City Police Officer

A new member of the Willamina City Police department is Jack L. Guinn, formerly of Salem. He has had previous service with the Oregon State Police.

New Osteopath

Dr. Otis Barr, osteopathic physician and surgeon from Carnegie, Oklahoma, will open a clinic in Willamina Monday, June 30, in the Bunn building. Dr. and Mrs. Barr have been in Willamina for the past two weeks preparing the building for use as a clinic. It was formerly occupied by the Hobby Treasure ceramic shop.

Dr. Barr received his pre-medical training at the Sioux Falls college in South Dakota and his medical training at Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery. He has practiced since 1938 in Oklahoma, where he owned and operated a 12-bed hospital for eight years. Dr. and Mrs. Barr have three children: Karen, 10; Judy, 7; and Andy, 3.

Dr. Barr was born and raised in Algona, Iowa, and in Carnegie was a member of the Kiwanis Club, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Quarterback Club.

Summer Camp is Attended by Group

The Free Methodist Young People's camp at Camp Wyeth on the Columbia River was held from June 14 to 21. Attending from the local church were Bonnie Schwab, Eleanor Howell, Bruce Larson, and Kimsey Surgeon from Willamina; and Patsy McKutchen and Lois Gould of Sheridan.

Littlejohn Elected to School Board Position

Elwin Littlejohn was re-elected to the board of directors of Union High School District No. 7 for a term of five years, at the annual meeting of the district held Monday at the Willamina High School. He received 13 votes, Ivan Dent 10, and C. W. Schukar 1.

Fort Hill Grange Wins C of C Trophy

Fort Hill Grange, located near Valley Junction, received permanent possession of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce trophy recently when it was presented at a grange meeting by Ken Shetterly, representing the Dallas Chamber.

The trophy, which is awarded annually to the grange which conducts the outstanding agricultural program through the year, has been won the last three years by the Fort Hill Grange, thereby giving them permanent possession.

The Dallas Chamber reports that a new trophy will be purchased to be awarded for the 1952 grange year during the spring of 1953. This will be the fourth trophy to be put into circulation by the organization over a period of more than 20 years for this particular contest.

Mrs. Everett Henthorn, master of the Fort Hill Grange, received the trophy, expressing the appreciation of the granges for the interest taken by the Dallas Chamber of Commerce in sponsoring this annual contest. Howard Wooden, chairman of the agricultural committee of the grange, conducted the program at the meeting, which included special numbers by members of the Fort Hill Grange.

Square Dance Fans Plan Local Organization

The Willamina Promenaders met Tuesday evening to begin organizing a local club. Another meeting has been planned for Tuesday evening July 1, at 8 p.m. at the Rebekah Hall, when the meeting nights will be set and other business taken care of. The local square dancers have never formed a club before. Anyone interested in belonging is urged to attend.

It is not necessary that joiners know how to square dance, as beginners' classes will be held.

Note of Appreciation

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the Lamson brothers, also the City Police and others who helped in saving our daughter from the undesirable attack.

~Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schwab
